

Classroom Addition To DuPont Hall Being Built; Ready For Spring 1969

An addition, 58 x 82 feet in size, and containing three floors, is being built at the present time to become an important part of the DuPont Hall academic complex.

The building, which will be constructed to match the exterior of DuPont Hall and the Chapel-Auditorium, will face Radnor Avenue. It will be located behind the Headmaster's Office, and it will connect with the vestibule of the Auditorium so that Cadets can reach this area for study hall purposes without delay.

Captain Raven O. Dodge, Headmaster, explained that this extremely important addition will concentrate all of the academic classrooms into the one large area of DuPont. The addition, he said, will be three stories. The first floor will house four classrooms and language lab. The second floor will hold four combination Science classroom-laboratory rooms, and the third floor will be devoted entirely to the library, with the exception of a large room that can be used either for conferences or another classroom.

"By moving the language lab from Clark Hall, the Physics rooms from Radford Hall, and the Biology facilities from Farragut," the Headmaster explained, "we'll pretty much have all of our classroom activities confined to a single area that will result in better supervision, more efficient operation of this part of our daily program, and more effective results for the Cadets."

Captain Dodge said that the building will cost in the neighborhood of $250,000, with an additional $35,000 to $40,000 needed for furnishings. An anonymous gift of $5,000 has already been received by the Headmaster to be used for furnishings, and Captain Dodge is hopeful that other interested persons will offer to assist the Academy in this venture.

Plans for remodeling DuPont Hall have not yet been set, but it is likely that some of the present classrooms will be enlarged, the former Physics

1968 Cadillac Winner

The winner of the 1968 Cadillac raffled by the Farragut Parents' Association on Friday, May 31, was Stephen C. Wright, Hitherbrook Rd., St. James, N.Y. The number of the winning ticket was No. 1581.

Mr. Wright is a graduate of Farragut, Class of 1947, and his son, Randy, has attended the Academy for the past two years. Another son, Gary, will also be attending with his brother this September.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wright were at the Parents' Dance at the time the winning ticket was drawn. It was the first time in four years that the winner of the car was present.

lab converted into a room to house vending machines, lockers for students, and a place to relax when not in class or study hall. A Spring 1969 date has been announced for the completion of the new building.

Cadet M. Burns '69 Wins Manual-of-Arms Contest

Cadet Michael F. Burns was judged the best drilled cadet of the 1967-68 Corps when he outlasted all other contenders for that title on May 5, the date of this year's Alumni Manual-of-Arms Contest.

The Flushing, N.Y., second classman was awarded the Association's Certificate of Merit and an Academy plaque engraved with his name, the contest, and date held. Army Reserve captain John W. Wootton '52, Chief judge, made the presentation after the contest ended. The event was staged as part of the regular Sunday parade during the Spring Parents' Day program.

Alumnus Addresses Class Of 1968 At Commencement Exercises On June 2

Sunday, June 1, was a memorable day for sixty-four members of the First Class and ten Eighth graders as they received their diplomas during the 35th annual commencement exercises. The final program was held in Robison Hall before a capacity crowd of over 1000 persons, and climaxed an exciting "June Week" that began on Friday, May 31, when final sailing races and the June Ball were held.

An alumnus, Major General Joseph L. Dickman, USAF, Class of 1935, was the featured speaker during the graduation program and the reviewing officer at the final parade on Saturday afternoon.

General Dickman, back for his first visit in thirty-three years, told the Class of 1968, that he didn't see any change in the American way of life as far as world power and wars are concerned. Regarding the Soviet Union and China as continuing threats to America, General Dickman said, "Both countries are big militarily and autocratically, and they crave world expansion and domination. These threats will not disappear."

He called China's growing nuclear strength "very serious," and pointed out that the country has detonated seven nuclear devices in the past 3½ years. He said America's only guarantee of national security is armed strength.

The General told the Cadets, "This is the challenge you'll have to face. We've got to learn how to maintain peace. Mankind has not learned much in this area."

General Dickman graduated from the U. S. Military Academy in 1939. He has had a long and distinguished career in the Air Force and is presently commander of the Eastern North American Air Defense Region, the Eastern Continental Air Defense Region, and the First Air Force Defense Command, with headquarters at Stewart Air Force Base, N. Y.

General Dickman personally presented diplomas to each of the graduates as their names were called.

Other Honors

Cadet Theodore W. Geiser, Jr. was presented with the Admiral Farragut Academy Award for First Classmen for having the highest multiple general proficiency in academic work, naval drills, compliance with regulations, athletic and extra-curricular activities during the past school year. He was also named one of six new members to the Cum Laude Society.

Others named to the Society included Martin A. Brown, Howard T. Cronauer, Jr., Richard F. Horstmann, Thomas D. Jones and Robert W. Strong. Gen. Dickman was made an honorary member.

Stephen B. Chasko presented the valedictory for the Class of '68, and Geiser delivered the salutatory. Chasko also received the Cedric H. Lewis

Math Award and the Headmaster's Scholarship medal for having the highest academic averages.

Other Headmaster awards went to William D. Almy '69, Winfield P. Irwin '70, and Emanuel S. Troullos '71.

Final Parade

General Dickman presented the Academy with an Air Force flag during the final parade on Saturday. It has been added to the collection of service flags on display in the Alumni Memorial Lobby of Shepard Hall. Allen R. Howard '39, president of the Alumni Association, awarded the Association's Certificate of Merit to the General in a surprise presentation. The Certificate cited him for his distinguished Air Force career, for attaining his present rank, and for the honor he has brought to Farragut with these accomplishments.

Also at the parade, the DAR Award for Seamanship and the American Legion gold medal for riflery were won by Cadet Christopher Bruner. The Alumni Association's Officer Award was given to Cadet Stephen Gangemi, and Cadet Michael Fanghella was named.

In Retrospect With The Headmaster

CAPTAIN RAVEN O. DODGE

Commencement exercises in June marked the end of Farragut's thirty-fifth year, and, in many respects, it was one of our best years. Our academic program remained strong. As of the end of the year our senior class of sixty-five had received over one hundred fifty acceptances to college. Four were accepted at the Naval Academy. Our Naval Science program, with the incentives offered by the new Naval Junior ROTC program and the effective leadership of the naval department personnel, achieved the highest degree of interest and acceptance from the Cadet Corps which it has experienced in many years. Our athletic program was expanded to provide for a large group of soccer players who enjoyed both a good fall and spring season in spite of the handicaps of playing space and impromptu scheduling. Our extra curricular and activities program was more extensive and varied than it has been in many years. Further, we had a very cooperative and effective group of cadet officers, whose leadership and sense the responsibility contributed greatly to a better military appearance of our Corps, better esprit de corps, and a greater degree of individual cadet self-discipline than is normally achieved.

Guest Speakers Program

Beyond this general summary of the past year there are some other specific highlights which are worth mentioning. A year ago I asked the Alumni and the Parents' Association to set aside some money for sponsoring a distinguished speakers' program. While the money given for this purpose did not entirely cover our first venture, we did invite MAJGEN Donald Bennett, the Superintendent of West Point, to visit the School. He addressed the Corps of Cadets in the evening, and the next day he held two sessions with groups of seniors devoted entirely to questions and answers about the military responsibilities of young men and particularly to the war in Vietnam. This was a unique educational experience for the students and we certainly hope that this program can be continued in the future. We were fortunate also in being able to have representatives from the State Department visit the Academy. They met with selected groups of cadets who had done preliminary study on such things as the Arab-Israeli conflict, the attitude of France and De Gaulle toward the gold problem, foreign aid, etc. Again, this presented an excellent opportunity for our cadets to discuss world affairs and history in the making with those who were immediately involved. Also, we sent representatives from our Corps to meet with representatives from schools throughout the county in a mock Republican Convention. They spent two or three days in this activity and I am happy to say that our boys acquitted themselves with some distinction. Other academically oriented activities included Science, Biology, and Mathematics Clubs and the Senior Seminar. In addition to these activities there was a variety of trips of educational value by various groups of cadets. These covered areas of interest in Science, Mathematics, Government, Drama, and Music.

Naval Science Improved

The Naval Science Department added several new facets to cadet life this past year as well as continuing one or two others from the year before. For the first time every cadet in Naval Science had training cruises aboard our flagship, The AFA. Each group went aboard in proper navy fashion, were assigned to their stations on the boat, and performed their assigned duties under good instruction and supervision. A very active Marine Studies Club was formed for cadets interested in oceanography and marine biology. The official Navy "Dining-In" which was initiated a year ago for our cadet officers was continued again this past year. With the cooperation of Lakehurst Naval Air Station this affair is held at the Officers Club and follows strict naval procedure. A year ago the Naval Science Department initiated a weekly meeting of the joint Chiefs of Staff which is made up of the ranking cadet officers and the Head of Naval Instruction. During these meetings common problems are discussed, suggested solutions are worked out, and guidance and leadership training is given to the officer group. Recommendations from this group are frequently passed on to the Director of Activities and Naval Training and to the Headmaster. Both the cadet officers and the Academy officials have benefited from this procedure. Also two large groups of our cadets were able to visit the Philadelphia Navy Yard while the battleship USS NEW JERSEY was being recommissioned and prepared for active duty. With battleships rapidly becoming obsolete this might well be the only opportunity these cadets will ever have to go aboard one.

Varied Activities

We had sixteen active club activities during the past year, in addition to our regular inter-company sports program, nine varsity and junior varsity teams, the marching band, drill team, and the opportunities for optional waterfront activity. We had a very active Chess Club that met once or twice a week and actually participated in one or two tournaments with players from both private and public schools. I was particularly glad to see a chapter of Fellowship of Christian Athletes installed on the campus. This is a national organization of athletes which was originally started by Donald McClanen '43. It has become national in scope and many of the outstanding athletes of the country have become members. Mr. McClanen came to the Academy and spoke to our Cadet Corps under the sponsorship of our chapter of FCA. Subsequently, he was followed by Raymond Berry, who finished his professional football playing career last year with the Baltimore Colts. He spoke to the Corps on a Friday afternoon and met again that evening with a group of interested cadets. The following morning he gave to a number of Cadets, on the football field, some of the benefit of his professional football "know how". The Photography Club, which had been semi-dormant for several years, took on new life last year. There were several cadets who were extremely interested, and I spent $150.00 from the Headmaster's Fund to buy them much needed equipment for their work. The boys themselves did a great deal of work getting the dark room in shape.

Last year we planned rather carefully to use all of our club and activity programs to the maximum extent at times when they would be most helpful in keeping up cadet morale. We tried to plan as much activity as possible for the winter months. All instructors or club sponsors who were planning trips or special activities were encouraged to plan them for the winter period. In addition, we made every attempt to plan additional activities. It was during this period that General Bennett, Donald McClanen, and Raymond Berry visited the School. Friday nights saw a variety of activities. Various groups of cadets arranged basketball games. There were basketball games between the varsity and the Alumni and between the faculty and the seniors. There were outside lecture programs. Dances here at the Academy, as well as at schools away from the Academy, were arranged for both upper and lower school cadets. A boxing exhibition, which included a professional boxer as well as some young hopefuls, was well received by the Corps. All in all the winter period was an active and interesting one, and this is the first year for a long time that I have not heard cadets complaining about the dullness of the winter months.

Faculty Recommendations

During the latter part of the 1966-67 school year I asked our faculty to make a rigorous evaluation of all aspects of our school program. Faculty committees worked on this project, preparing reports and recommendations which were presented to the entire staff for final consideration and approval. Out of this process came several recommendations which have added significantly to providing an atmosphere in which cadets performed more effectively in the academic, naval, and activity phases of school life. Among their more important recommendations affecting cadet life were the following:

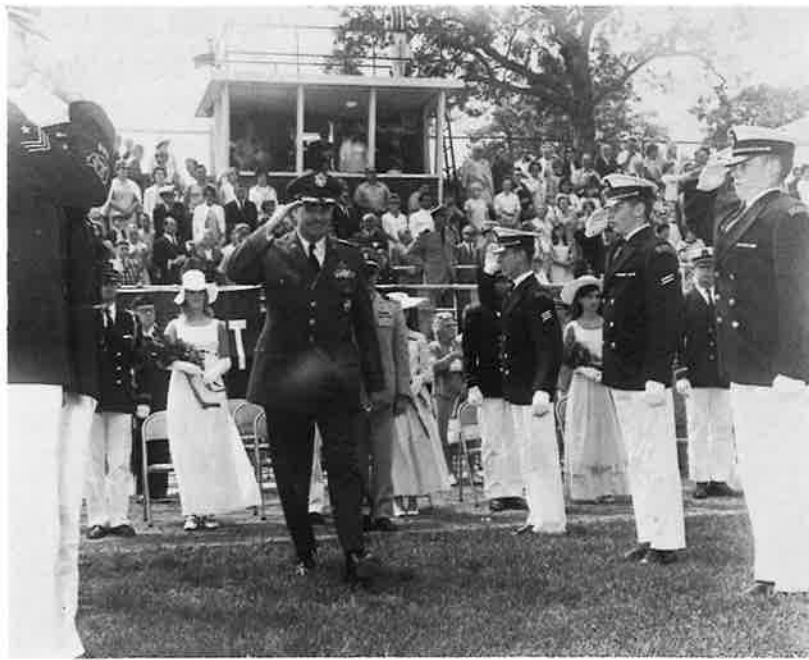

1. A better organized and supervised program of inter-company athletics with a greater variety of sports available.
2. A greatly increased program of activities during the winter months.
3. The elimination of a reveille formation on Sunday mornings which would permit cadets to "sleep in" with breakfast available at a later hour for those who wished it.
4. A modification of the requirements for earning leaves to permit those cadets who were doing as well academically as we could reasonably expect them to do to earn a 48 hour leave each month. This involved the establishment of predicted achievement levels for cadets. Those whose grade point average reached their predicted achievement level earned a 48 hour leave and those who exceeded their predicted level were entitled to two. Under this program every cadet should be able to earn a leave each month. Under the old system cadets who were working diligently to maintain a C average could never earn a 48 hour leave, while other cadets could maintain a B average and earn their 48 hour leave without working nearly as hard.

5. A change in the handling of conduct was also recommended. Briefly, this involved taking out of the conduct category all reports that did not have connotations of right and wrong, but stemmed essentially from failure to follow those regulations required for orderly living in a boarding-military school situation. These reports were This makes it possible to check placed in a Naval Adaptability category and cover such things as violations of taps and reveille, improper uniform, lateness to formations, room inspections, etc. Extra duty is not assigned for these until a cadet's reports exceed four. This makes it possible to check all of these things and teach proper procedures, using extra duty when checking and teaching fails. Extra duty is automatically assigned to the reports that fall in the first category of conduct. Based on last year's experience the approach to discipline of teach, check, and punish if necessary seems much better than that of catch and punish for everything. In any case, last year was one of over-all better cadet morale, better conduct, and less extra duty. We must be doing something right.

Looking Ahead

Against the background of a good last year we look forward optimistically to the coming year. The percentage of old cadets returning is greatly improved. New cadets look good, and we seem to be getting an unusual number of boys with some athletic ability. The work has started on our new classroom addition which we hope will be ready by midyear or early spring. Rather extensive changes have been made in our waterfront facilities and they are the best now that we have ever had. More of our old cadets have registered for Naval Sciences courses than at any time since these courses were made optional. Our cadet officer group for next year looks good. I look forward to an even better thirty-sixth year.

PIPED ABOARD — Sideboys pipe General J. L. Dickman, USAF, aboard prior to the start of the final parade on June 1. Full honors were given to the distinguished visitor, his first since graduating 33 years ago. In addition to reviewing the Corps of Cadets, he also presented the Academy with an official Air Force flag during the final military event of the school year.

PLEASED GENERAL—MAJGEN Joseph L. Dickman tells Alumni Assoc. president Allen R. Howard '39 how pleased he is to receive Certificate of Merit from the graduate organization. Mr. Howard made the presentation at the final parade on June 1, citing the General for attaining his present rank, for his distinguished career with the Air Force, and for the honor he has brought to Farragut with these accomplishments.

REMEMBRANCE FOR THE DICKMANS—Captain and Mrs. W. K. Russell presented Mrs. Dickman with a set of Wedgwood commemorative plates of the Academy, and an autographed copy of the 1935 Trident to the General, at the luncheon given in their honor after the General had addressed the Class of '68 at commencement.

WARNS GRADUATES — General Dickman makes a point during the 35th annual commencement exercises on June 2nd when he addressed the Class of 1968 and told them that America must remain strong if it hoped to survive against the present world conditions that exist today. It was the first visit to the campus in 33 years for the 1935 Farragut grad.

CHAMBER SALUTE — Captain and Mrs. W. K. Russell are shown with N. Y. State Supreme Court Justice Anthony M. Livoti (right), speaker at annual dinner of the Greater Toms River Chamber of Commerce, which saluted Captain Russell as its "Man of the year." Judge Livoti, whose son, Anthony, graduated in '66, is a past president of the Farragut Parents' Assoc. He gave a stirring talk on the problems of modern society, calling for a firm rule of law and order. The dinner was held on May 15.

T. R. Chamber of Commerce Honors Capt. W. K. Russell at Annual Dinner

Captain W. K. Russell, treasurer, and the Academy were honored by the Greater Toms River Chamber of Commerce at its annual dinner on May 15. Approximately 200 business and professional leaders of the community attended the event, held at the Ye Olde Cedar Inn.

Captain Russell received the Chamber's Distinguished Citizenship Award, which designated him as Toms River's "Man of the Year" for his outstanding contributions to, and leadership in, the economic, educational and cultural development of the area.

In addition, he was presented with a copy of a resolution adopted by the New Jersey Legislature. Senator William T. Hiering, in making the presentation, cited him as one of the State's outstanding educators.

In accepting the honors Captain Russell said he was proud to be a resident of the area and thankful that the Academy had grown in stature over the years. He told of the difficulties encountered during the painstaking operation of founding the School, but, he said, the progress made in the past 35 years has been amazing.

Captain Russell is also chairman of the Ocean County College board of trustees and president of the Council of County Colleges of New Jersey.

A good friend of the Academy and a past president of the Farragut Parents' Association, Judge Anthony M. Livoti, was the featured speaker during the dinner and called for a strict law enforcement code to deal with outbreaks such as the recent uprisings at Columbia University.

Other speakers were Dr. Andrew S. Moreland, president of Ocean County College; Frank W. Sutton, president of the First National Bank of Toms River; and Captain Raven O. Dodge, Academy headmaster.

IN RECOGNITION OF—State Senator Wm. T. Hiering, displays copy of resolution adopted by the N. J. State Legislature in recognition of CAPT W. K. Russell, president of the Academy's Board of Trustees, and chairman of the Ocean County College Board. The event took place at annual dinner sponsored by the Greater Toms River Chamber of Commerce naming Captain Russell "Man of the Year."

$500 Gift Received By Assoc. For Student Aid

The Alumni Association's Student Aid Fund received a generous contribution on May 28 when Captain R. O. Dodge, Headmaster, accepted a check for $500 from the Circus Saints & Sinners Club of New York. The occasion was at the Club's regular monthly luncheon at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, when professional football coach Vince Lombardi was honored.

The gift is the third annual donation in this amount that has been given to the Academy for student aid purposes. Parents' Association Past President, Herbert E. Walmsley, has been responsible for these gifts being made. His son, Philip, is a member of the Class of 1967.

Many Improvements Seen In Past Year

Improvements, large and small, appeared to be the order of the day around the campus during the past year, and the results show the continuing beautification of the grounds and buildings, plus the addition of more facilities.

Major improvements include the addition of a large classroom and office to the Academic Headquarters building. The classroom is used by the Lower School, and the office provides space for Captain N. F. Reinhard, Dean of Students, who also has a small room for the individual testing of Cadets.

Robison Hall underwent a complete renovation program that included the installation of acoustical tile ceiling, acoustical panels on the walls, new lighting, and the complete painting, sanding and refinishing of the floor. The project was a joint venture by the Parents' Association and the Academy, and the total cost was approximately $14,000. The Association's share of the cost was $6,000.

In DuPont Hall the Cadet Activities office and Battalion Office were completely changed in appearance. Captain Fred N. Klein's office was reversed so that the former smaller space became his private office and the larger area was utilized by Mrs. J. Drummond, his secretary, and all of the necessary equipment and files. The "Batt" Officer was repainted and re-furnished, and generally given a more efficient appearance for better operation of the daily Watch.

In Farragut Hall the Reception Lounge and Lobby were painted a light and attractive green, and new gold carpeting was laid in the Reception area to give a bright and cheerful appearance to administrative offices adjoining these facilities. The large oil painting of Admiral D. G. Farragut that used to be on the lobby wall of Robison Hall was moved to the Reception Lounge and given a place of prominence for visitors to see.

A new boiler has been installed in Farragut Hall, also, and the main Cadet toilet areas have been paneled with white formica. The installation of awning-type windows and screens throughout the building has also been completed. This was done over a period of two years.

S. Gangemi Elected F. P. A. President

Stephen P. Gangemi, Dumont, N.J., was elected president of the the Farragut Parents' Association at the annual meeting, Sunday, May 5. Mr. Gangemi is president of the Bergen Motors, Inc., Bergenfield. Last year he served as treasurer of the Association before being elected to his present post.

Also elected were: 1st V. P. — William Canonico, North Brunswick; 2nd V. P. — Harry Busch, Westfield; 3rd V.P. — Walter Paruch, Oceanside, N. Y.; Secretary — Daniel H. Jones, Medford Lakes; Treasurer — Franklin W. Policastro, Spring Lake.

Elected Executive Committeemen for one-year terms, were; Joseph E. Kolb, Malvern, Pa., and M. Sid Dixon, Boonton.

For two-year terms: Joseph Jaslowski, Roosevelt, and Robert S. Gates, Ordell.

For three-year terms: Clark C. Beam, Chatham, Everett S. Holley, Rutherford, and Albert G. Zeitz, Moylan, Pa.

Completing one and two-year terms respectively, are Cecil C. Gilman, Buck Hill Falls, Pa., and Peter E. Zorilla, Rochelle Park.

The Executive Committee is responsible for adopting policy and carrying out the Association's program between annual elections.

Faculty Bowling Team Wins League Title

Farragut's first staff entry into a local bowling tournament this past year walked off with the championship of Gasser's Special League at the Beachwood Plaza bowling lanes.

The team, comprised of Academy Staff members, won 66 games and lost 37 in taking the crown. Team members consisted of CDR K. W. Rowe (Director of Admissions), LCDR S. Slaby (Director of Athletics), LCDR R. Lynch (Director of Summer Camp and Varsity Basketball Coach), LT D. Lynch (Supply Officer and Captain of the team), and Mr. K. Anderson (Supt. of Maintenance). Substitutes included K. Knapp (Maintenance) and G. Niekirk (Head of the History Dept.).

The team was sponsored by CAPT W. K. Russell, and the members were all outfitted with blue and gray bowling shirts with the name, Farragut Tars, inscribed on the backs of each of them. Each member received a trophy, as well as the sponsor, for winning the 1967-68 championship.

IT'S YOURS, SIR—Retiring Parents' Assoc. president Fred Borchert (left) hands gavel to newly-elected prexy, Stephen P. Gangemi, after election on May 5. The transfer of authority took place in the DuPont Hall auditorium at annual meeting.

Mrs. Gertrude Mills

Mrs. Gertrude Mills Dies; Was Nurse For 22 Years

Mrs. Gertrude Mills, staff nurse at Farragut for 22 years, died last Dec. 12 after a long illness. She lived in nearby Beachwood.

Prior to joining the Academy staff, Mrs. Mills worked at Paul Kimball Hospital, Lakewood, where she was supervisor. During World War II she served with the Army Nurse Corps.

She is survived by her husband and three sons.

Parents' Assoc. Has Good Program

The Farragut Parents' Association completed another successful year of operation during the 1967-68 term. President of the organization was Fred E. Borchert, Jr.

The Executive Committee consisted of F. N. Cantore (1st V.P.), W. Canonico (2nd V.P.), H. Busch (3rd V.P.), S. Gangemi (Treasurer), and Committeemen Dr. S. Chasko, J. Koczwar, E. Wilder, Jr., C. Gilman, D. Jones, Jr., D. Yoho, W. Paruch, F. Policastro, and P. Zorilla.

Captain R. O. Dodge and CDR W. R. Masciangelo of the Academy Staff were also members of the Committee.

The Association held a reception for parents of new Cadets at the opening of the school year last September, it conducted Fall and Spring Parents' Days, it held two very successful dances — Christmas and June — and ran its fourth annual Cadillac Raffle.

The objectives of the Association this year were: (1) re-grading and seeding of the athletic field behind the former Music Building, and the installation of a fence around it, (2) the completion of the new parking area opposite the baseball field by fencing it and adding additional shrubbery, and (3) the purchase of additional recreational equipment for the Cadet Corps.

The Committee decided at a meeting on Feb. 28, that the priority of the objectives to be completed, based on the total amount of money available, would be the field, the recreational equipment, and the parking lot.

At the present time firm bids are being received for the development of the athletic field, and depending upon the amount of funds available after this particular project is completed, the remaining objectives will then be considered. Executive Secretary W. Masciangelo estimates that the field alone will cost close to $9,000 by the time it is finished.

The newly-elected Committee (as of May 5) will meet some time before the start of the new school year to determine the objectives for 1968-69 and the Association's program.

Homecoming Day Set For Nov. 2nd

The date of this year's annual fall Alumni Homecoming Day has been set for Saturday, November 2, according to Alumni Secretary W. Masciangelo '37.

The program will feature a football game with Pingry School at 2:30 p.m., and will be preceded by the annual business meeting of the Association at 11:30 a.m., and the Alumni Luncheon at 12:30.

Results of this year's election of officers and trustees to the Association's Executive Board, will be announced at the annual meeting.

Following the game there will be a Post Game Huddle at the Ye Olde Cedar Inn, after which there will be dining and dancing until 9:30 p.m. The Association will provide a live orchestra for this period, plus give away a number of prizes free of charge to those in attendance holding lucky tickets.

The annual Alumni Reunion Award and prize will also be given, to the alumnus travelling the greatest distance, at the parade prior to the start of the football game.

Anniversary reunions will be held for the Classes of 1938 (30th), 1943 (25th), 1948 (20th), 1953 (15th), 1958 (10th), and 1963 (5th).

For the third time in as many years there will be a pre-Homecoming get-together the night before for those grads returning for a long weekend. Details of this event and Homecoming Day will be announced via the mails approximately one month prior to Nov. 2nd.

LONG DISTANCE WINNER—Wm. C. Schultz '51 is congratulated by Alumni Assoc. president Allen R. Howard '39 for winning the long distance award at last year's Homecoming. Bill travelled from Lompac, Cal. to be present at the annual reunion of grads.

Named To Planning Board

CDR Wm. R. Masciangelo, Public Relations Officer and Alumni Secretary, has been appointed to the Borough of Pine Beach Planning Board. The appointment was made by Mayor Benjamin H. Mabie.

CDR Masciangelo was formerly Borough Clerk during the early fifties. He is also past president of the Pine Beach Fire Co. and the Republican Club of Pine Beach.

BAND INSPECTED—Navy captain George F. Sharp, Class of '35, inspects Band Co. during annual Navy inspection in May. CAPT Sharp is currently C.O., U.S. Naval Station, Phila.

L. O. Speck Named Science Dept. Head

Former instructor and coach Lewis O. Speck will be a member of the teaching staff once again when the new school year begins in September.

Mr. Speck has been appointed head of the Science Dept., replacing LCDR Gabriel J. Daniel, who will be retained as a member of the department under his administration. Mr. Speck served as an instructor from 1956 to 1959 and from 1960 to 1963, having taught Physics and Physical Science during both tours of duty at Farragut.

He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania.

In making the announcement, CAPT R. O. Dodge, Headmaster, said that Mr. Speck would teach biology in addition to handling his administrative duties for the Science Dept. He also explained that Mr. Speck was hired effective July 1 and has spent most of the summer months developing science courses and supervising the equipment and facilities that will make up the new science areas of the academic building addition presently under construction.

Mr. Speck coached varsity track and was line coach of the varsity football squad when he was here before.

Memorial Day Keeps Cadets On The Move

Memorial Day was a busy day for all hands, especially members of the Band and the other music groups.

The entire Corps participated in the annual Toms River parade, which took up most of the morning, and the Band then returned to Pine Beach by 12:30 p.m. to play an important role in the dedication of a plaque at the Fire House in memory of Sgt. Richard Brown, USMC, a local resident who lost his life in Viet Nam.

During the entire afternoon, the Band and other music groups were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Newton, where the Cadets enjoyed barbecuing and swimming in the nearby Toms River. Mr. Newton is head of the Music Dept.

Corps Hears Alumni In Six Appearances

When Alumni Association president Allen R. Howard '39 took office in 1966, one of the first things he asked of Alumni was to become more involved with Academy and Association matters.

During the past school year a number of graduates were personally involved at the School in a varied list of activities that resulted in good for both the Alumni and the Cadets who participated in these events.

Donald McClanen '43, on January 5, addressed the Corps and spoke about the organization and goals of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Later, in the evening, he conducted an informal meeting of all Cadets interested in joining the FCA. Don was the founder of this national organization, and while no longer associated with it on a fulltime basis, he still works actively in its behalf.

On March 5, Marine Lt. Bill Masciangelo '62, spoke to the Corps and a number of staff members about his experiences in Viet Nam. In addition to his talk and blackboard illustrations, he showed color slides that he took personally while serving in the DMZ area with the 3rd Division.

Fred Leeder '64, Regimental Commander of the Ohio State University NROTC Unit, gave an interesting description of the Navy's college program and showed slides of one of the cruises that he had taken as a midshipman.

The Navy Department's annual inspection this year was conducted by CAPT George Sharp, USN, Class of 1395 on May 16. Captain Sharp, a member of the 4th Naval District's Staff, requested this assignment because he felt he could not only make an accurate inspection of the Academy for the Navy, but, he could, at the same time, serve the interests of Farragut by making worthwhile suggestions for improvements in areas that he found needing attention. This interest on Captain Sharp's part, was well taken.

RADM Shannon D. Cramer, USN '40, Farragut's first naval officer of flag rank, returned to tour the Academy grounds and review a parade on Sunday, May 19. The Admiral received full honors during his visit, his first since acquiring his present rank. His personal flag was carried by Cadet William Almy, the son of a classmate of Admiral Cramer.

MAJGEN Joseph L. Dickman, USAF '35, one of two Farragut grads to reach this rank, closed out the school year when he returned to review the final parade on June 1 and address the Class of 1968 the following day.

In addition to these personal appearances listed above, Coach Stan Slaby had the Athletic Office completely redone in walnut panelling by Joseph Luccarelli '59. Joe is V.P. of a construction concern in W. Long Branch, N.J., and offered to do the job in an effort to improve this area of Robison Hall.

First Cadet To Receive Diploma Visits School

James P. Anderson '34, who, when he was a Cadet, was the first recipient of a Farragut diploma, visited the Academy in the middle of July on his way from Omaha, Neb. to Avalon, N. J., where he and his family were visiting during their vacation.

An Electrical Engineer for the Union-Pacific R.R., Mr. Anderson is married, the father of four children, and he attended Drexel, U. of Penna. and the U. of Pittsburgh after graduating from Farragut in 1934.

Academy Accepts Day Students

For the first time in its 35-year history, the Academy accepted a limited number of day students in the Summer School program it conducts each year. The School is run by the regular Academy staff in conjunction with the Camp program, which the Academy has operated since 1933.

Until this year only boarding campers, who may also elect to take academic work, have been accepted. Captain Raven O. Dodge, Headmaster, in making the announcement, said there has been a growing number of requests from local residents each year for such a program, and, because the staff and facilities are available for this purpose, the Board of Trustees decided it would consider the change in policy beginning this year.

The Summer School offers new and review courses in mathematics and English from grades 4 through 11. A reading program is also available to all students in these grades. Students may take courses either for review or for credit, and classes will meet six days a week, Monday through Saturday.

For high school students who are weak in English, the Summer School offers an English Workshop Program, with intensive review of grammar, spelling, vocabulary and writing.

The reading program is conducted by The Reading Services of Princeton and stresses to develop increased reading speed, comprehension and vocabulary. The Academy's regular testing, guidance and college advisement facilities and services are also available to summer students under special arrangements.

A total of nine local students were accepted this summer.

ed the outstanding Petty Officer by that same organization. Captain W. K. Russell presented a Navy sword to Battalion Commander Geoffrey Rabida in memory of his mother, Mrs. Thomas H. Russell.

The Alumni Honor Company Trophy was accepted by Cadet LT Geiser for the Second Company, which won the colors in competition during the academic year.

Baccalaureate Held

Baccalaureate services were held Saturday evening under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Ansley G. Van Dyke, Academy Chaplain.

Members of the graduating class represented Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Massachusetts, Maryland, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Virginia, New Jersey, Venezuela, Chile, and Puerto Rico.

Other Cadets receiving awards during the graduation exercises were:

AFA AWARD (Underclass) — a silver medal based on the same requirements for the First Class award to Cadet Geiser): to Cadet Ty Newell.

F A C U L T Y SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS—a certificate to that cadet in each of the four classes for outstanding scholarship in English, History, Science, Mathematics and Languages:

ENGLISH—S. Chasko '68, S. Gangemi '69, J. Stankard '70 and M. Campagna '71.

HISTORY—M. Brown '68, T. Gilman '69, W. Irwin '70 and J. Thomas '70, and M. Campagna '71.

SCIENCE—S. Chasko '68, J. Pearson '69, W. Irwin '70, and E. Troullos '71.

MATHEMATICS—R. Strong '68, M. Turnbull '69, W. Irwin '70, and E. Troullos '71.

5 Share Top Honors

Highest academic honors for the month of May were shared by five Cadets who each earned a 4.0 average, with no failures or 5 attitude grades. The five were Donald Beck '70, Raymond Goodnoe '70, Mark Hanna '73, Winfield Irwin '70 and John Thomas '70.

Silver ribands with a gold star were earned by six Cadets having second highest academic averages, with no failures or 5 attitude grades. These were William Almy '69, John Bratt '73, Martin Brown '68, McKelvey Costin '73, Ty Newell '70, and Emanuel Troullos '71.

LANGUAGES—T. Geiser '68, W. Almy '69, J. Thomas '70 and E. Troullos '71.

THE WILLIAM JOHNSON Award—for excellence in History: to Cadet M. Brown.

THE RENSSELAER AWARD — a gold medal to the 2nd Class Cadet who has achieved the highest marks in Math and Science: to W. Almy.

IMPROVEMENTS - - from pg. 4

went extensive improvements during the past year. Both were painted a bright blue with white trim that gives them a smart, crisp appearance. Aboard the AFA a classroom-game room was made out of the forward area, a new head was installed, and the complete interior, including the engine room, was painted.

The AFA pier was extended so that both boats can be berthed side by side, a new Dockmaster's Shack was built on the main dock, and a 25-foot signal tower erected to give the entire waterfront area a more ship-shape appearance. Also, electricity and water has been extended to the facilities at this location.

A large, 250x125 foot parking area that will hold approximately 75 cars was constructed opposite the baseball field. The area has been paved, brick columns built at two entrances, and shrubbery planted to give the new lot an attractive appearance and provide for off-street parking during important events and games held at the Academy.

MAKING A POINT—MAJGEN Donald V. Bennett, USA, Supt. of West Point, held two seminars for members of the senior class, discussing the world situation and the foreign involvement by the United States. Lively discussions were held between the General and the Cadets during his two-day visit to the Academy on March 26 and 27.

ALL TIME GREAT—Cadets Bob Sullivan, Chuck Koczwar and Tom Jones discuss football with Baltimore Colts-All-pro end, Ray Berry, during two day visit to the Academy last spring. Berry spoke to the Corps about the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and then demonstrated how the game of football is played the following day.

16 Alumni-Related Cadets Enrolled For 1968-69; Number Growing Annually

A record number of Cadets, who are related to Farragut Alumni, will be attending the Academy this fall, according to a report released by the Alumni Office.

As of August 7, the following Cadets have been enrolled:

Frank H. Boller, son of Richard G. Boller '45, Elizabeth, N. J.; William T. Canonico, brother of Louis Canonico '68, North Brunswick, N. J.; Howell Curran, son of Guernsey Curran '48, Honolulu, Hawaii; Carl L. Greener, Jr., son of Carl L. Greener '39, Allentown, Pa.; and John Grossman, brother of Jeffrey Grossman '66, West Caldwell, N. J.

Donn R. Harris, son of Burton H. Harris '37, New York, N. Y.; Winfield P. Irwin, son of Winfield T. Irwin '44, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mareo A. Lopez, brother of Raul Lopez '57, Caracas, Venezuela; Jeffrey B. MacMakin, son of Charles D.

MacMakin '35, Ridgewood, N. J.; Gregory Rabida, brother of Geoffrey Rabida '68, Rockville, Md.; Donal Rainville, brother of Jeffrey Rainville '67, Westfield, N. J.; Thomas M. Searles, Jr., son of Thomas M. Searles '40, Timonium, Md.; and Gregory L. Stoyer, son of Morris O. Stoyer '44, Shiremanstown, Pennsylvania.

Gary E. and Randolph B. Wright are the sons of Stephen C. Wright '47 of St. James, N. Y., and Peter S. Van Winkle, who completes the list, is the son of Robert Van Winkle '35, of Rutherford, New Jersey.

In addition to these Cadets, there are always a number of others who are enrolled each year because of recommendations made by Alumni. Alumni Secretary W. Masciangelo, in making the report, expressed thanks for this active interest in the Academy shown by members of the Alumni Association.

Librarian Reports 175 Books As Gifts

Robert Pflieger, Academy Librarian, reports that the Library was the recipient of 175 books in the form of gifts during the past year.

Mr. David A. Yoho, Jr., Scotch Plains, N. J., presented 22 brand new titles for the Junior High School section of the library, most of the books dealing with science, exploration and history.

Nine books, welcome by any library, were received from Mr. Eugene Wenden, Pine Beach, and proprietor of the Arrow Travel Service in Toms River. Some of the titles include Shakespeare, The Power and the Glory, The Reason Why, and Mr. Johnson.

The Chancellor of Fairleigh Dickinson U. presented three books: Conference on Oceanology, The Private Urban University, and An International Conference on Higher Education.

The New Jersey Bell Telephone Co. donated New Jersey and the Negro.

One of the most important additions to the Library in the past several years has been the Civil Air Patrol Shelf established by an alumnus, Dr. Gerard Nash, Class of 1944. Fifty-three additional books were added to this section by the generous doctor, all of them dealing with aviation in some form or another. Mr. Pflieger said the shelf receives a great deal of attention from the Cadets because of the interest shown in this subject.

Dr. Nash is a radiologist in Amarillo, Tex. In addition to these and other books in the CAP section, he has contributed other books to the Library and donated a set of weights when the Weightlifting Club was first established in 1962.

Mr. Edward H. Wilder, Jr. has provided an unusually large number of books on the Civil War, which will give the Library one of the finest representations on this subject, among any scholastic library in the area. The gift totalled 81 books in all and covers practically every aspect of the great struggle between the States.

New books purchased for the Library by the A. F. A. Alumni Association, from a fund established by that organization, include the Columbia Encyclopaedia for Library, a 30-volume set of the 1968 Encyclopaedia Americana, Compton's Picture Encyclopaedia, and Books in Print. Most of the Association's donations are in the form of reference material.

Also, the Class of 1967 gave the set, "Who's Who in American History," valued at close to $100, to the Library as a graduation gift. Mr. William F. Hallstead III presented, "Dirigible Scout," and Mrs. Mary L. Blackwood donated "Daily Life in Peru."

Individuals wishing to help the Library by giving gifts of books should contact either Captain R. O. Dodge, Headmaster, or Mr. Robert Pflieger, Librarian.

"Quotable Quotes"

"To those of you graduates who intend to enter a naval or military career, I can only say that I am sure that this nation will need your services for a long, long time. I cannot visualize the day when we can forego our armed forces. As much as we all hope for peace, the only guarantee to peace with security is armed strength. I strongly recommend that you who are going to college consider entering the ROTC program, which offers advanced military training and commissions in the Army, Navy or Air Force. In addition, the ROTC program has very attractive scholarships that are well worth looking into."

SONG BIRD—Miss Donna Reed sang a medley of songs from South Pacific during annual Spring Concert on March 19 in Robison Hall. The concert band accompanied her during this part of the program.

Music Groups Gave Concerts In 1967-68

Two very successful concerts were presented by the combined Music organizations of the Cadet Corps during the past school year. Under the direction of Dayton O. Newton, Dept. Head, the Concert Band, Dance Orchestra and Glee Club produced the annual Christmas Concert on Dec. 19 and the Spring Concert on March 28.

Approximately 100 Cadets participated in the two productions, which were both played before capacity audiences of Cadets, Parents and Friends in Robison Hall.

The singing of Christmas carols by members of the audience highlighted that event, and the stirring finale of Adeste Fidelis, traditional ending of the program, produced a thrilling climax for those in attendance. The Junior School Cadets carrying lighted candles and wearing cassocks were very impressive.

Miss Donna Reed was the guest at the Spring concert, singing a medley of songs from South Pacific. The Central Regional H. S. student showed considerable poise and talent during her presentations. Cadet Tom Bonura sang several popular songs with the Dance orchestra and received a considerable hand for his efforts, and the three participating organizations played and sang a variety of classical, popular and traditional numbers.

MY PLEASURE—MAJGEN Melvin L. Krulewicz, USMCR, Ret., presents Marine Corps flag to Bn. Cdr. Geoffrey Rabida at special ceremony last Spring. The flag has been added to the collection of service flags now on display in the Shepard Hall Alumni Memorial lobby.

Museum Acquires Interesting Gifts

A gas turbine model and a letter written to Rear Admiral Stribling in 1861 are two of the latest acquisitions by the Farragut Marine Museum.

The turbine model is a type using both diesel and gas, and it was presented, along with descriptive literature and a photograph of a Danish frigate using it for a power plant, by T. E. Scott, president of Stal-Laval, Inc. He is the father of Cadet Thomas E. Scott III '70.

The letter written to Admiral Stribling, who is Cadet Francis M. Snodgrass' great, great grandfather, was signed by his officers when he left the USS HARTFORD on July 27, 1861, located in Hong Kong, on China Station duty.

A set of 12 drawings, showing Naval uniforms from 1812 until 1898, has been framed with money from the Marine Museum Fund founded by the A.F.A. Alumni Association last fall. The frames are 16 x 20 in size and are black and gold in color. The pictures are located in the waiting room which is located between the Museum and the Naval Science Office.

Also framed with money from the same Fund are 6 drawings of naval sailing ships, walnut and black in color, and 20 x 25 in size. The ships are of the USS Constitution, President, Raleigh, Philadelphia, Essex and Brandywine. These are presently located in the Director of Activities/Naval Training Office.

The Alumni Association is hopeful that enough money can be raised from the Farragut Fund campaign this year to pay for the initial cost of redesigning and renovating the Museum area. Captain F. N. Klein, USN, Ret., Director of A/NT and Museum Curator, would like to recreate a shipboard atmosphere, if possible, adding new and proper display cases and enlarging the entire facility.

Attilio Sinagra '36, prominent New York City artist and illustrator who designed the Alumni Memorial Lobby in Shepard Hall, has been asked to help in the layout and design of the Museum. Captain Klein, Captain P. C. Crosley and CDR W. Masciangelo expect to meet with Mr. Sinagra at the New York Yacht Club this month to discuss the matter with him. Mr. Sinagra has agreed to help in developing this important facility.

PRIZES GALORE—The colorful scene above was taken during the annual Parents' Association Christmas Dance, a benefit affair for that organization's annual program to assist the Academy.

58.98% of Farragut Fund Goal Reached As Drive Continues To Push Forward

In a report issued on July 27, Alumni Secretary W. Masciangelo '37 announced that the Farragut Fund for 1967-68 had attained 58.98% of its $12,000 goal at that time.

The report showed that 241 contributors had given a total of $7078.05, for an average gift of $29.36. Of this number of donors, 26% are listed as "new participants", which means that they did not take part in last year's annual Fund program.

In the special category of "Farragut Associates," (those persons giving $100 or more to join this membership), 18 gifts amounting to $2900 and an average of $161.11, had already been received. Last year 26 persons joined as Charter Members, giving $3756.

Rear Admiral Shannon D. Cramer, USN, Class of 1940, who is serving as National Chairman, is making another appeal, through this issue of the Capstan, for all Alumni and Parents who comprise the Farragut Family to help the Fund attain its goal before the current campaign ends.

The objectives for the Fund include the Marine Museum Fund, Military Proficiency Awards, Student Aid Fund, Recreation Fund for Cadets, Distinguished Guests Series, Lectern with Sound System, Projector for the Math Dept., Headmaster's Discretionary Fund, Books and Equipment for the Library, Faculty Fund for Advanced Study, Theatre Spotlight with Color Wheel, and an Electric Organ for instruction purposes.

"With all of these important and varied objectives," Admiral Cramer said, "I am sure that many of our friends can find one or more of these programs worthy of their support. All of them are geared to help make a better Farragut!"

"We've got to work hard and together if we're to keep our memories alive and if we're to help Farragut take its rightful place in academic circles as one of its leaders. There is little doubt but what our Country needs strong leadership in every walk of life, and we feel confident that our Alma Mater can play a major role in this kind of leadership."

Walter B. Hutchinson '35
Past President
A.F.A. Alumni Assoc.

General Chairman Thornley B. Wood '38 indicated that last year the Fund produced a record amount of $10,744.75 from 405 donors, with a final average gift of $26.53. 89.53% of the goal was reached. "This," he stated, "clearly shows that with 26% of our present donors new to the Fund this year, all we have to do is get the 405 who gave last year to repeat again, and we'll end up with a 25% increase over the previous Fund record. It's as simple as that."

Last year the Alumni Association, which operates the Farragut Fund each year, purchased an electric football scoreboard at a cost of almost $3,000, added $1,500 to the Student Aid Fund, $500 was placed in the Faculty Fund for Advanced Study, $550 was given to the Headmaster's Discretionary Fund, and funds appropriated for the Library, Military Proficiency Awards, the Farragut Marine Museum, the new Distinguished Guests Program, the Music Fund, and the Cadet Recreation Fund.

"With a goal of $12,000 to be reached in order to fulfill the twelve objectives that have been adopted for this year's Fund," Admiral Cramer said, "We hope that we can announce that we have gone over the top at the annual business meeting the morning of Alumni Homecoming Day on Nov. 2."

"Farragut Associates" Play Important Roles

The Farragut Associates, an organization founded last year, continues to play an extremely important role in the development of additional funds for the Alumni Association and Academy.

Membership in this organization is open to all Alumni, Parents and Friends who are willing to contribute a minimum of $100 annually to form a strong base from which all fundraising efforts are launched. Last year, in its initial beginning, the Associates numbered twenty-six members and the total amount this group gave was $3756. The average gift came to $144.46.

At this point in the current Farragut Fund campaign, eighteen members have joined this group and have given a total of $2900. This produces an average gift of $161.11, an increase of $16.65 per gift over last year's record. Four of the current eighteen members are new, while the other fourteen have renewed their membership, for the second consecutive year.

Members to date include: ALUMNI A. Willard Ivers '47, Weden O. Spence '44, Frank P. Wendt '42, Andrew V. Aldi '65, Thornley B. Wood '38, Alan B. Shepard '41, William Balaban '45, Michael C. Carpenter '43, Bernard J. Lewis '48 Dr. Anthony R. Fernicola '37, Allen R. Howard '39, and William L. Goodman '44.

PARENTS Mr. & Mrs. Robert M. Spicer, Dr. Joseph M. De Nardi, Mrs. A. L. Bradley, Mrs. Anne E. Rissel, and Mr. Warren D. Blatz.

FACULTY Mr. W. Lankford.

Athletic Teams Posted .480 Record For 81 Contests Played in 1967-68

Farragut's 1967-68 athletic record can not be called unusually successful, but it can be termed good, interesting, healthy and constructive for a large number of Cadets who participated in the program.

The fall season began with the varsity football schedule of seven games carded for the Middies, and when the last gun had sounded the Slabymen found themselves on the short end of a 2-5 record. While the record reflected a poor season, the games played were, for the most part, interesting and reflective of the high degree of spirit and hard play the Middies are noted for.

A neat win of 12-0 over Newark Academy and a crushing defeat of Croydon Hall, 47-7, proved to be the two victories registered, while losses were suffered to Wyoming Seminary (0-14), Blair (0-16), Delbarton (0-27), Pingry (12-14), and New York M. A. (0-6). Both Blair and Delbarton were undefeated during the '67 season. Outstanding men for Farragut were Co-captains Chuck Koczwarra, back, and Tom Jones, end.

Soccer

Varsity soccer was introduced to the campus for the first time in the School's history, and 20 Cadets, under the tutelage of Coach Michael Sanso, played both a fall and spring season with surprising results. After a shaky opener and loss to Toms River H. S. last fall, the booters came through with a 2-2-1 mark for their efforts. The spring season began with two wins over the N. J. Southern Shore All-Stars, 2-0 and 2-1, and games were then played against teams from Neptune, Red Bank, Pt. Pleasant Beach and Pt. Pleasant Borough. This unofficial season ended with a 3-3-3 record, another impressive mark in view of the first season venture by the Sailor booters. Manny Gastillo and Ron Bramson from Mexico and Chile respectively, were the co-captains and leading scorers.

Varsity Basketball

Coach Ray Lynch had what looked like an outstanding team going for him this past year until the squad was plagued with an unusual number of injuries. The team jumped off to two wins against Newark Academy and Croydon Hall before the Christmas leave set in, and then, playing against the same two clubs in January, dropped the same number of contests. Losses were further registered with Carteret, Hill, Delbarton and Blair, and wins came over Hun, Stevens Prep and a strong Alumni club.

The Alumni game, played before a packed house in Robison Hall, was one of the most exciting. With an impressive lineup of Bob Shapiro '56, John Klopstock '57, Bob Sgromolo '58, Dave Robinson, Charlie Kearney, Joe Lucarelli and Jim Vatter, all of '59, Rich Weldon '62, Tex Brown '64, Andy Aldi, Bruce Greenspan, Don White, Bill Olinger, and Bob Morey, all of '65, the Varsity was hard put to eke out a 71-67 victory after the two clubs battled on even terms for the first three periods.

Organized teams for Jr. Varsity, Freshmen, and Junior School were part of the over-all court scene, and Coach Lynch has high hopes that some of these Farragut Futures will play an important role in the years ahead.

Varsity Wrestling

Coach Jay Shafa, assisted by Jim Belote, produced a 4-5 record with his grapplers last season. The team downed Jackson H. S., Delbarton, Pingry and Pennington, but lost close contests to Peddie, Lawrenceville, Montclair, Christian Brothers and Blair.

Larry Di Pano (115) was undefeated during the season and took a 2nd at the States. (He is Vince Di Pano's ('66) brother, who was also an outstanding wrestler for Farragut.) Pete Carpenter (141) and Bob Irvine (157) took seconds at the State tourney, and Gus Reid (168) placed 4th. Carpenter suffered only one defeat during the regular season. Co-captain Tom Jones, at 178, was also undefeated during the season, but failed to make the State scene because of a knee injury that kept him side-lined.

Varsity Rifle

The riflemen, coached by Chief Darwin Larson, had the best record of any team. The sharpshooting Middies compiled an outstanding record of 12 wins and 4 losses to give them a season average of .750.

Led by Captain Steve Chasko and Associate Captain Jack Hirst, the team defeated such opponents as Valley Forge M.A., Red Bank Jr. Rifle Club, Toms River H. S., Somerset Jr. Rifle Team, Junior Essex Troop, and Xavier H. S. In the annual N.R.A. Sectional Match at Raritan, N. J., the team placed first in the Military Scholastic Div., earning gold medals for the first four men. They also copped 4th place in the overall standings of the 26 teams entered. Hirst took the Jr. ROTC individual crown with a score of 372-400.

Varsity Baseball

In the spring, Coach Stan Slaby's nine finished with a 6 and 7 mark. Four of the losses were by one run, which indicates how close the competition was.

Rich Borchert carried most of the pitching load, and Al Chamberlain and Ron Dubbs show considerable promise for the future mound duties. Chuck Koczwarra and Mike Fanghella were two of the biggest guns at the plate.

Some of the wins were over Newark Academy, St. Joseph's H.S., Pennington, Princeton Day School and Croydon Hall. Losses were to Newark (return game), Pingry, George School, Lawrenceville and Blair.

Varsity Track

The Cinder team came through with a surprising .500 record this past season. Not too many individuals thought the club could muster a win against its competition, but the Sailors produced victories over Newark Academy, St. Joseph's H.S., and George School. Losses were to Central Regional H.S., Peddie and Blair.

Chuck Richelieu, Gerry Risi, Dave Seiler and Bob Irvine were the chief point producers in the running events, while Richelieu, Dave Policastro, Dick Horstmann, Pete Viele, and Jack Hirst were the big guns in the field contests.

Resume

Of a total of 81 varsity contests played during the 1967-68 year, Farragut teams won 37, lost 40, tied in 4.

Alumni Homecoming?

Special reunion classes this year for 1938 (30), 1943 (25), 1948 (20), 1953 (15), 1958 (10) and 1963 (5).

TOP ATHLETIC TEAM—Captains Steve Chasko (left) and Jack Hirst check scores with coach Darwin Larson during the Rifle team's successful season. The rodmen had a 12-4 record.

Grid Card Lists Eight Games

The 1968 varsity football squad will play eight games this season, beginning with Newark Academy, away, on Sept. 28, and ending with traditional rival New York Military Academy, also away, on Nov. 16.

In other contests the Middies will play, on successive Saturdays, Wyoming Seminary, home, Oct. 5; Carteret School, home, Oct. 12; Blair Academy, away, Oct. 19; Delbarton School, Away, Oct. 26; Pingry School, home, Nov. 2; and Croydon Hall, home, Nov. 9.

Pro Broncos Call For 'Tex' Brown '64

Adin "Tex" Brown, one of Farragut's greatest athletes, has been signed by the Denver Broncos of the American Football League and is currently trying to win a birth on the squad. He reported to the Broncos camp about July 20 after attending an Army OCS course at Indiantown Gap, where he completed the required training for an Army commission.

"Tex" graduated from Wm. & Mary College in June, where he was Co-Captain of the Indian '67 football team. Named the "Hammer" because he nails down the opposition from his corner linebacking spot, is the way he is described by those who have seen him play for three years. The 1967 football program also described him as follows:

"An All-American candidate if there ever was one, this lanky, agile, mobile and vital player to the W & M cause roams the football field in search of the enemy and it is not unusual to see him make the tackle on the opposite corner. A fullback by trade, Adin played both offense and defense his sophomore year, gaining 138 yards on part-time employment, but stuck with defense alone in 1966, gaining All-Southern honors for playing 10 consistently good games. Adin clearly established himself as the man who is in the right place, and his quiet leadership off the field and fierce competitiveness on the field will be a key factor in any Tribe success. A geology major from El Paso, Tex., he is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity."

"Tex" was honored prior to his graduation by being awarded the Outstanding Athlete Award at Wm. & Mary.

Records At Trinity Set By R. Rissell '62

A 1962 grad who made a name for himself at Trinity College, Hartford, Ct., is Richard C. Rissell.

The former Middie signal caller graduated from Trinity in 1966, and he holds the college's individual season football records in both passing and total offense. In the '65 season, as captain and quarterback, he registered 105 completions in 203 attempts for eight TDs and a record of 1382 yards. Even with a minus 6 rushing total for the same season, Rich's total yardage of 1376 stands as another Trinity mark.

In addition to football, he was a member of the varsity basketball team, and, as a junior, he won the Coach's Foul Shooting Trophy for his 85.7% from the free throw line. He was a member of Delta Psi fraternity and Cerberus, an honor society whose members act as official college hosts. As a freshman he was elected to the Freshman Executive Council. He majored in history.

Since graduating, Rich was commissioned a 2nd Lt. in the U. S. Marine Corps, entered flight training, and is currently on his way to a set of wings.

At Farragut, Rich was Battalion Commander, played varsity football, basketball, baseball and track, and was a member of the Trident and Capstan Staffs, Monogram Club and Hop Committee.

Deaths of Five Alumni Association Members Are Reported By Office

G. MERRILL '42 E. W. BRIGGS III '59 C. L. CONKLIN '62 A. D. APPLGATE '63

The Alumni Officer regrets to announce the deaths of five of the Association members during the past year. These members were George F. Baker '34, Dr. George Merrill '42, Lt. Edward W. Briggs III, USMC, '59, Christopher L. Conklin '62, and RM 3/c Alan D. Applegate '63.

George F. Baker, a member of Farragut's "Pioneer" Class of 1934, died Sept. 25, 1967, at the Veterans Hospital, Coatesville, Pa. A member of the Army Air Force for 3½ years during World War II, he also attended Penn State U. He had been employed with the J. H. Baker & Sons firm. He is survived by his parents, three sisters, and two brothers.

George Merrill '42

An associate professor in industrial education at the University of Maryland, Dr. George Merrill died of a heart attack on March 24. He lived in Hyattsville, Md.

Dr. Merrill took his bachelor's, master's and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Maryland, where he had been on the faculty since 1955. He was a World War II veteran and a major in the U.S.A.F. Reserve. In 1964 he was one of five Maryland faculty members elected unanimously to receive an excellence in teaching award for his creative and resourceful approach to teaching. He was responsible for the Work Experience Manual used in the Education for Industry curriculum and he developed a program for the master's degree in industry and technical education.

At the time of his death he was director of the Research Institute for Sheltered Workshops. He is survived by his mother and two sisters.

As a cadet he was a member of the Band and played Inter-Co. Baseball.

Marine Lt. Briggs

Marine 1st Lt. Edward W. Briggs III, Class of 1959, was killed June 1 when he ejected from a Cougar jet near Kingsville, Tex. He was the pilot on a low-level routine training mission when the plane crashed.

After completing a P.G. year in '60, Wardie attended Colgate for two years before transferring to Alfred University from where he graduated and was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He was sworn into the Marine Corps on May 25, 1966, and entered active duty in October of the same year. He was a member of the Marine Air Detachment and had qualified for carrier landings on the USS Randolph in February.

His body was escorted home by a fellow Marine and Farragut classmate, 1st Lt. Barney Hauptfuhrer, also assigned at Kingsville.

While at Farragut, Wardie was a Band Co. ensign, held a BM 3/c rate, and played varsity football, track, baseball and basketball. He first entered the Academy in Sept. 1957, graduated in '59, and took a post graduate course.

Chris Conklin '62

Last Oct. 11, Christopher L. Conklin was killed when his parachute failed to open while skydiving near Reno, Nevada. At the time of his death he was working at Lake Tahoe, Cal. He also planned to teach skiing in the area during the winter months. He previously attended the University of Colorado and had travelled extensively in Europe.

A member of the Third Co., Chris played Inter-Co. football and baseball, was co-captain of the varsity wrestling team, and a member of the Chapel Club, Monogram Club, Cotillion Club and Hop Committee. He held a Seaman's rate in Naval Science.

Alan D. Applegate '63

After attending Rider College for two years, Alan D. Applegate '63, enlisted in the Navy in Sept. of '65, where he earned a Radarman 3/C rating. He returned to the States last Sept. after spending seven months in the Viet Nam area, contracted an illness, and was temporarily assigned to the Philadelphia Naval Hospital as a patient when he was killed on April 13 in a car accident. He was due to be discharged from the Navy in three weeks because of a disability that had occurred while on active duty.

Described as calm, reserved and rugged by his classmates in the '63 Trident edition, Al played varsity football and track while at Farragut, earned a B.M. 3/C rating, and was a member of the Chapel, Weightlifting, Cotillion and Chess Clubs.

"JUNE" BALL SCENE—First Classmen are shown "making the scene" at this year's June Ball, which was held on Friday, May 31 in Robison Hall.

BEST DRILLED CADET—Capt. John M. Wooton, USAR, '54 congratulates Cadet Michael Burns '69 for winning Alumni Manual-of-Arms contest on May 5. Cadet Burns bested representatives from all of the companies to win "Best Drilled Cadet" title.

NEW SCOREBOARD—Clayton Matthews '36, Allen Howard '39, Carl Erikson '36, Bill Taylor '36 and Bill Masciangelo '37 take a close look at the new electric scoreboard presented to the Academy last Homecoming Day by the Alumni Association.

The Capstan is published in the interest of the Admiral Farragut Academy and its Cadets, Alumni, Parents and Friends.

He hoped to return to the States and take command of a destroyer around August 1. DR. BOB CARTER was named to head the San Francisco Crime Committee in May. He received his bachelor's degree from Wm. & Mary, and his masters and doctorate degrees at the U. of Calif. at Berkeley. He once served in the Army Counter-Intelligence Corps for four years, rising to the rank of major.

Wm. G. Hagmann '46

BILL HAGMANN has been appointed V.P. of Marketing for the Decorated Metal Mfg. Co. division of the Dyson-Kissner Corp., Milltown, N. J. He was formerly with the Permacel Div. of Johnson & Johnson. A graduate of Montclair and Rutgers, Bill lives with his wife and three children in Bridgewater, N. J.

A nice letter from CHARLIE HASHAGEN revealed that he is now working for University College, the evening undergraduate school of Rutgers. He has hopes of obtaining a Master's Degree in Adult Education.

BARRY FALGOUST has probably returned from a tour of duty at Clark AFB in the Philippines. A major, he and his family were due back in the States around 1 August and he has been assigned to the Pentagon for his next duty station. Barry said that they have been able to visit many of the interesting places in that area while at Clark.

MARSHALL FINK is Manager of the Prudential Bldg. Maintenance Service Dept., NYC, has a BA degree from NYU and has attended St. John's graduate school of business for two years. His interests are photography and sports, and in February he became the owner of the Trenton Colonials, a member of the Eastern Basketball League.

It was wedding bells for GAEL GEORGEON and Sarah Poole in Coconut Grove, Fla. in Feb. Gael received his BA and LLB from the U. of Miami, and he is employed as a stockbroker with Francis I. duPont & Co., Miami.

We had a pleasant visit by JOHN HOLLIS in April. John, who is with the Parsons Research Project at the U. of Kansas, presented a scientific paper at Atlantic City. He reminded us that he attended Farragut for eight years, which is some kind of record.

Class Agent DAVE SHERB is regional manager of Master, Div. of Koehring Co., operating out of the Plymouth Meeting, Pa. area.

GUERNSEY "PETE" CURRAN is Trust Officer for the First Natl. Bank of Hawaii. He graduated from Rensselaer Poly in '53 and attended M.I.T. for an additional year. He is married to the former Marilyn Haswell, and he is the father of Howell, Gordon, Elise, and a new addition expected in Sept. Pete served in the Air Force from 1953 to 1958 and is currently a Major in the Hawaiian National Guard. Sailing, stamp and coin collecting are his major hobbies. In April he had Bill Masciangelo, Jr. '62, who is a Marine Lt. stationed in Honolulu, crew for his son, Howell, in several races.

When Class Agent NICK CUSANO visited in Maine recently he stopped in a drug store and bumped into BILL CONWAY, who was working there. Nick said he looks fine and expects to see him again this summer when he returns to that area for a vacation.

Pete served with the Air Force as a 1st Lt., and he is a member of Sigma Xi, Tau Beta Pi, and he received the New York Society of Architect's Award.

After devoting full time to teaching, BOB WRIGHT is now with the Flow Corp. Alexandria, Va. Bob recently sent the Academy library a copy of a book that he co-authored, entitled "Basic Nuclear Engineering." It is a fairly sophisticated text on nuclear engineering fundamentals which also covers topics of interest to non-nuclear engineers. It was published earlier this year by Allyn & Bacon.

BILL ANDERS is now a private consultant in regional and area development, operating out of Wash., D.C. He formerly worked for the Tri-County Council in Waldorf, Md.

1951

PHIL GEHRING, an Air Force major, expects to be at HQ USAF for at least two more years. He is still in the AF Data program developing standard computer systems. He also works two nights a week as a counselor-teacher at a Maryland school for emotionally disturbed boys. Phil says he has been doing this for two years and loves it.

SAM KAPLAN, in a card sent to us in Jan., said he had heard from ANDY SOLE when he was in D.C., and that JOHN POMERANTZ has been keeping him broke ever since his wife started going to his place in NYC for her clothes. Sam has been married for over 13 years, has three children (12, 10, 8), and is V.P. of Select Employment Service, which processes labor from overseas.

BOB KENDALL bought himself a lovely new home in Pine Beach. He is a TWA pilot, is married, and has one child. We learned in Jan. that TOM RYAN is with the Polaris MS1 Fac Pacific Bremerton, Wash.

Last Nov., JOEL WINSLOW wrote us a letter aboard a plane after a business trip to the Air Force Academy. Since Farragut, he attended Tufts U., went to Korea with the Army, was wounded at Chorwon Valley in Dec. of '53, discharged as a Sgt. in '55, and then went to the U. of Mass. for five years (9 credits short of a degree). As a student he started an antenna biz, which grew to 6 men and 4 trucks by his senior year. He married Dee Scavetta in '57 and they now have 4 children: Daniel, Timothy, William, and Joshua. John left the University and sold the antenna business, after which he joined Science Electronics as Director of Audio Visual Products. In 1964 he established a chain of drive-in food stores, and in 1965 joined the staff of Chester Electronics Labs as a manufacturer's rep. In '67 he became staff advisor as well as rep for the firm.

GLAD TO BE BACK—Dennis Marks '49 and wife, Ann, are shown at last season's final game with Croydon Hall. The couple lives in NYC, where Dennis is a free lance writer.

Last fall JOHN WOOTTON was named general chairman of a combined fund-raising drive for two hospitals in the Boonton, N. J. area. John was back at Farragut on May 5, when he served as a judge of the annual Alumni Manual-of-Arms contest.

BOB BENNETT became the father of Susan Leigh on Dec. 8, 1967. A C.G. officer, he expects to be at HQ Wash., D.C. until the summer of '69. He has been doing a lot of personal research on the U.S. Life-Saving Service, and it's possible, he says, that an article or book is forthcoming.

DAVE ISQUITH terminated his naval service a year ago after 10 years of active duty. He is now an Electronics Engineer at the Naval Ship Engineering Center, Wash., D.C., and he still holds a reserve commission. After work, Dave studies at George Washington U. for an MS in Personnel Admin., as well as field work as a registered rep in securities and insurance. He and Clare have three children. Dave also told us that BOB CROEBER is a LCDR (SC), USN, HARRY WELLS is a Marine Major, brother AL ISQUITH has a PhD in Bacteriology and is doing post-doctorate work at the Hahnemann Hospital, Phila.

Word was received in March that BOB DREW was awarded a PhD in environmental health sciences from New York U. Bob graduated from Rensselaer Poly, and then after working for the N. Y. State Dept. of Health and the N. J. State Dept. of Health, he joined the staff of NYU in '61. He was sent to England for three months and also spent one year in Brazil in conjunction with his research. At present he is an associate research scientist at the Sterling Forest Lab, engaged in inhalation toxicology.

From Rocky River, Ohio JOHN B. NORRIS wrote us in April that his daughter is now five, and that his wife, Anne, was expecting in May. We're still waiting to hear the good news, John!

We've had some interesting letters from JON RINDFLEISCH, who, as Marine Corps major, has been serving as senior advisor to the 2nd Viet Namese Marine Corps Battalion. Since Christmas Jon's outfit had a big operation in III Corps and then left for more duty in IV Corps. They were in the Delta area until the big Tet offensive, and were then moved to Saigon. His battalion picked up its 6th major victory palm, which makes them the most decorated VNMC unit and the second most decorated Vietnamese unit in the country. After a month's leave, Jon is expected to transfer to an American Marine Unit in the I Corps.

BURNS CAMERON represented the United States on a quiz program in Johannesburg, South Africa, last month. Contestants were from the United Kingdom, Canada, Australia and the U. S., together with the South African quiz champ. The Headmaster's Last Charge

"THE VALUE OF YOUR DIPLOMA"

The last formation for the Class of 1968 was held on June 2nd, at which time you received your diplomas. You are now graduates of Admiral Farragut Academy. To all of you your diploma has one pre-eminent meaning. It signifies the completion of your college preparatory work.

I wish to take just a moment to call to your attention some of the deeper and eventually more worthwhile meanings which this diploma will have for you. When you received it you automatically became a member of a large group of Farragut Alumni. Many of these men already hold responsible positions in the world of business and the professions. Their record in various branches of the service, particularly in the Navy, has been outstanding. Both they and we at the Academy can expect that you will do so as well. When you accepted your diploma you accepted this standard of accomplishment and service which has been established by those who preceded you.

Your diploma furthermore implies that the Academy has placed its approval upon you. We depend upon you to uphold the hopes and ideals which are the reasons for our existence. Whatever reputation we have as a school is the result of the accomplishments of our graduates. In turn, every graduate has a better opportunity for success because he tends to carry with him the reputation of the Academy.

The more each one of you achieves as an alumnus, the greater will be the value of the diploma which you received. Now that you have left the Academy the best wish I can give you is that those graduates who follow may prize their diplomas more highly because of the added meaning which your deeds have given them.

All of you young men have worked to merit graduation. We entrust to you in some measure our reputation with full confidence that it is in good hands.

My sincere congratulations to each of you!

"Quotable Quotes"

"We have learned here that freedom only exists where men recognize and discharge their mutual duties and obligation. All men are and always will be dependent upon each other. Tyranny arises only in disorganized societies where the bonds of mutual and common responsibilities have been weakened or broken. At Farragut, we have seen that we may all enjoy a greater degree of freedom. The restriction upon absolute personal liberty here and in the world are vital to insure the collective freedom of all members of the society. When order and reasonable authority break down, the result is never "Freedom" or "Independence," but anarchy, until the tyrant emerges to impose his will upon the shattered society.

And the tyrant is never overthrown by individual action, but only by collective, organized effort by men who recognize the need to cooperate with each other, and to give up a measure of their personal liberties in exchange for similar sacrifices by others, all for the common goal and in the interest of a greater freedom for all men.

We have lived at Farragut according to these principles. We have seen that it works. There is no greater lesson!"

"Quotable Quotes"

"I want to wish you success of a different nature. I hope you will be successful in finding purpose and importance in your life. Purpose is much more evasive than success and comes out of one's personal codes and beliefs, one's loyalties and friendships, and especially from one's appreciation of past human experiences. You are heir to their knowledge and ignorance, their skill and understanding, their aspirations and their failures. Only by an incorporation of this framework with those personal values for which you are willing to sacrifice something, can one truly enjoy "the good life".
