VOL. 49 - No. I PINE BEACH, N.J. 08741, SEPTEMBER 1st, 1982

Admiral Wm. N. Small, USN '44, Vice Chief of Naval Operations, is welcomed by CDR Edward F. Cole, USN, Ret. '56, Director of Naval Science, and CAPT Robert W. Matthies, Jr. '67, Headmaster, upon his arrival to address the 49th commencement program on June 5.

Gala Homecoming Plans Set For Oct. 16; Will Honor Headmaster

Plans for the observance of the annual Alumni Homecoming weekend have been completed and promise to result in another successful reunion of Farragut graduates from all Classes. Of special significance this year will be the 45th anniversary reunion for the Class of 1937, with other 5-year classes of 1942 (40th), 1947 (35th), 1952 (30th), 1957 (25th), 1962 (20th), 1967 (15th), 1972 (10th), 1977 (5th) holding equally important get-togethers here on campus.

Individuals to be honored at the dinner-dance will be Captain Robert W. Matthies, Jr. '67 and Joseph R. Shepherd '41. Captain Matthies has completed 3½ years as Headmaster and is the first alumnus to hold this important position in the Academy's history. Shepherd will be cited for his long history of active service to the Association, and especially for the many years he has handled the duties of registration at the fall event. In addition, returning alumni will have an opportunity to meet Bonnie Matthies, a bride of not quite a year.

Graduates returning for the weekend will be able to attend the Friday evening informal social at the Howard Johnson Motel, Toms River, beginning at approximately 8:00 p.m. Music, full service bar, snacks and the opportunity to see old friends and members of the faculty and staff will be offered at that time. The event will be held in the Conference Room at the lower level of the Legend Lounge (Howard Johnson's).

The Saturday schedule of events is long and interesting and provides grads from all classes an opportunity to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent. Registration begins in the Farragut Hall Lobby at 10:00 a.m., followed by a meeting of the Museum Board at 10:00 a.m. and the annual meeting of the Association in the Library (Dodge Hall) at 11:30 a.m. The remainder of events includes the luncheon at 12:30 p.m., special photographs of all 5-year classes, the Alumni Parade (by former company and band designations), football game with Peddie School, the Post Game Huddle, and the dinner-dance. The latter two events are from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. and 7:00 to 11:00 p.m., and both will be held at the Holiday Inn, Toms River.

Prizes will be given for Long Distance and to the Class Trustee whose class has the highest percentage of participation in the 1981-82 Farragut Fund campaign. In addition, a prize will be given to the winner of the Manual-of-Arms contest slated for Alumni during the game halftime. Burns Cameron '56, Class Trustee, will give commands, since he has decided not to enter after winning the contest for the past two years.

The Association will furnish music at the Friday night reunion and for the dinner-dance.

Of importance at the annual meeting on Saturday morning is a report by President Wm. P. Garwood '49, a short talk by the Headmaster, a memorial service for all deceased alumni, the annual financial audit, and the results of the 1982 election.

Klein Named To Head Committee

CAPT Robert W. Matthies, Jr., Headmaster, has announced the appointment of CAPT Frederick N. Klein, Jr., USN, Ret., as Assistant to the Headmaster for Special Projects. The appointment became effective on June 1.

Captain Klein will head the 50th Anniversary Committee appointed by Captain Matthies for the observance of this important milestone in the Academy's history, and he will Chair the Committee responsible for preliminary study and work required prior to an evaluation by a visiting committee from the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools in the Spring of 1984.

Captain Klein first joined the Academy Staff in 1965 and served as Director of Naval Science, Rifle Coach, Commandant of Cadets, a member of the teaching staff, and continues to hold the post of Curator of the Marine Museum. He has been on a leave of absence for the past year because of the serious illness and subsequent death of his wife, Margaret.

In making the appointment, Captain Matthies said, "Captain Klein has a wealth of experience, both here at the Academy and during his Navy career, and we are fortunate to have a gentleman of his calibre and position associated with us in matters like this."

FPA Helpful To Academy, Cadets

The Farragut Parents' Association completed another year of help to five different objectives adopted by that organization last fall.

Areas given financial assistance included Oceanology, Competitive Sailing, Drill Team, the Library, and the Association's Scholarship Fund.

Under the presidency of Richard J. Van Fleet, the FPA held two dances, the Buy-A-Brick program, and membership enrollment to raise funds for these purposes. Grants were made as follows: Library $1250, Scholarship Fund $1250, Oceanology $3050, Competitive Sailing $2440, and Drill Team $610. In addition, it held the annual Fathers-Sons football dinner and a reception for New Parents at the opening of the 1981-82 school year.

Items For Sale

Certain editions of the Trident and composite Class photographs are still available for purchase, and information about these can be obtained by contacting the Alumni Office, % the Academy.

"We don't have Tridents or class photos for every year, but we do have a fair number," Alumni Secretary W. Masciangelo advised. He pointed out that the class composite pictures began with 1948, so these are not available prior to that year.

Speaker Stresses Personal Standards To Class of 1982

The usual pomp and circumstances surrounding the annual June Week here at the Academy were highlighted this year with the presence of Admiral William N. Small, USN, Class of 1944, Vice Chief of Naval Operations.

Admiral Small's impressive appearance and rank represented everything taught to Farragut Cadets over the years, and his poise, demeanor and personality did much to impress the audience of Cadets, Alumni, Parents and relatives who crowded into Robinson Hall for the 49th annual commmencement exercises on June 5.

The Admiral stressed the importance of having a set of personal standards as one sets forth in life. These, he said, included responsibility, integrity, compassion and competition.

"It is easy to recognize the need for responsibility," Admiral Small stressed, "but the big thing is what you do with this responsibility. That is the difference between a leader and a follower, and here at Farragut you have seen leadership. You have practiced it, and from now on, how to apply that sense of responsibility is up to you."

Regarding integrity, the Admiral quoted Xenophon, a Greek general of 2300 years ago, who said it was the ability to do the right thing no matter how unpopular it might seem. "Integrity is the hardest personal attribute to acquire, but the easiest for others to perceive. Integrity is the essence of naval leadership. You have lived under a code here at Farragut, as you always will, and you recognize integrity. Now you must live it."

Admiral Small continued, "The final quality is compassion, the Golden Rule. In addition to doing unto others what you wish they would do to you, there is another aspect of compassion ... that of sharing, passing along to others the love and assistance given to you along the way."

"The parents and families of each of you have sacrificed something in life to put you here. The Academy, the coaches, teachers and advisors have given some of their own lives to make you happier and wiser. You have to pass this along! I say this because young people tend to be very selfish, a fact I recognized in my own life far too late."

In conclusion, Admiral Small pointed out there is competition. "A set of personal standards does no good if not used. You have been given here at Farragut the tools of competition ... strength, knowledge, perhaps a touch of chutzpah, but more importantly, you have confidence that you can compete and hope to win. I envy you today. You have every opportunity in life that can be given. However you set your course, you have the tools of success, the love of wonderful people and the land of opportunity. I can only add my best wishes."

An enthusiastic and spontaneous standing ovation followed the Admiral's remarks of encouragement to the Class of 1982.

CDR Robert W. Lankford, Academy chaplain, opened the morning's exercises with the invocation, followed by Cadet LT Mark Viola's salutatory. CAPT Robert W. Matthies, Headmaster, next presented the Faculty Scholarship, William A. Johnson History, George Washington U. Math-Science, Cedric Lewis Math, Headmaster Scholarship, Admiral Farragut Academy (First Classman) and Admiral Farragut Academy (Underclassman) awards.

Cadet Junior Instructors, a program approved by the Academy's Cum Laude Society, were recognized and presented certificates by Captain Raven O. Dodge, Headmaster Emeritus. Recognized for their contributions of help to other Cadets were: S. Albanese, R. Barbon, R.

Curator Reports Gifts Donated To The Museum

CAPT Frederick N. Klein, Museum Curator, has reported gifts to the Museum were received from seven donors since last fall. These were in addition to four rings given to the ring collection that are reported in another story.

A large collection of Naval books was given by CAPT Paul C. Crosley, USN, Ret., former Director of Naval Science, who now lives in Merritt Lake, Fla.

A Japanese rifle and bayonet, World War II vintage, were given by Gordon Murray of Toms River.

Karl Knapp, a member of the Academy's Maintenance Dept. for many years, presented a copy of the NAS Lakehurst newspaper, The Airship, dated Nov. 5, 1952, plus pictures of Mr. Knapp receiving a citation from the Chief of Bureau of Aeronautics for effecting the rescue of a naval officer and his wife and child.

A command plaque of the Naval Air Rework Facility, North Island, Calif., was given by CAPT William D. Harkins, USN, Ret., former Commanding Officer, and member of the Class of 1944.

From Thomas J. Chirichella '72, a Marine Corps dress blue uniform, Republic of Korea Marine belt buckle, Republic of Korea Marine field utility cover with paratrooper and scuba pins, Republic of Phillipines Marine field utility cover, Apollo - Soyuz pin, Marine Corps divisional patches, and one of the famous "John Wayne" can openers. The Apollo - Soyuz pin was sent to him by a friend working at the U.S. Embassy in Moscow at the time of the flight.

In addition, Captain Klein personally gave a mahogany Duncan Phyfe swiveltop serving table for the Museum office, two upholstered occasional chairs, and a brass and oak replica of a 17th century naval broadside gun for the Quarterdeck.

Ring Collection Now Numbers 18

The Museum's Academy Class Ring collection has now grown to 18, according to CAPT Frederick N. Klein, Curator.

Classes represented are: 1936 (C. Matthews), 1937 (R. Saxton), 1938 (F. St. John), 1939 (A. Breed), 1941 (D. Groetzinger), 1942 (R. Conway), 1944 (M. Stoyer), 1945 (D. Baker), and 1946 (R. Cox).

Also, 1947 (R. Hill), 1949 (L. Johnson), 1955 (D. Nash), 1957 (S. Cliver), 1963 (G. Mitchell), 1965 (R. Lang), 1970 (G. Stoyer), 1972 (T. Chirichella), and 1973 (T. Coffey).

Captain Klein expressed optimism that eventually the collecction would represent rings from every graduating class in the School's history. "It would be nice if we could have the collection completed by the fall of 1983 when Farragut will be 50 years old," Captain Klein said.

Alumni interested in donating their rings should contact Alumni Secretary Wm. Masciangelo, % the Academy.

In a surprise to Admiral Small, Alumni Association president Wm. P. Garwood '49, presented him with the Distinguished Alumnus Award, the highest award given by the Alumni Association in recognition of the individual achievements by a member. A framed copper seal of the Academy and a framed Certificate of Merit attesting to the award were given to the former Cadet of the Class of 1944.

Cadet Christian Wagner, Class president, then presented to the Academy a gift from the Class of 1982 in the form of four evergreen shrubs, that were planted in the formation area. "These shrubs represent durability, growth, strength and character, and we hope they will grow and prosper as a tribute to our Class," Wagner said.

Four Cadets and Admiral Small were next inducted into the Cum Laude Society as In Course and Honorary members respectively. Cadets inducted were Richard Barbon, Renneth Calton, Daniel Greico and Matthew Howard.

Commissions to Cadet Officers are usually given at the final formation following Commencement, but this year, because of the inclement weather, permanent commissions were presented to First Classmen and temporary commissions to Underclassmen, indoors. Admiral Small, assisted by CDR Edward F. Cole, Director of Naval Science, made the presentations.

Headmaster Matthies read the traditional diploma "charge" written by Captain Dodge many years ago, and then asked CAPT W. Kable Russell, president of the Board of Trustees, and Admiral Small to give the 31 First Classmen and 20 Eighth graders their diplomas.

Valedictory remarks were next given by Cadet ENS Phillip K. Pall, followed by the singing of the Alma Mater, the playing of the National Anthem, Benediction, and the traditional tossing of hats into the air by the graduating class.

"Bricks" Sold By F. P. A.

The Parents' Association's Buy-A-Brick program sold an additional 21 "Bricks" during the past school year, to bring the total number of bricks sold to 72, according to CAPT Wm. R. Masciangelo, Executive Secretary. This year's sale included six $50 bricks, fourteen $100 bricks, and one $1000 brick.

Since the program was intiated in 1980, the Association has sold sixteen $50 bricks, fifty-two $100 bricks, and four $1000 bricks for a total of $10,000. The proceeds from the sale of bricks is split evenly between the Academy Library and the Association's Scholarship program.

Varsity Sailing Team Shows Good Progress

The Academy's varsity sailing program continues to develop since it was first initiated four years ago by the Alumini Association, and hopes are that competition with other secondary schools will be realized in the near future.

In a report to the Headmaster, Burton Dezendorf, sailing coach, told of participating in the Beachwood Y.C. series last Fall, and the Toms River Y.C. series this Spring. Four Cadets qualified at Beachwood, with one Cadet taking 3rd place overall. Mr. Dezendorf expresed his pleasure with the showing, particularly because of the late start made by the team.

At the Toms River event there were 19 Laser boats registered, with only 11 left after qualifying, and 5 of this number were manned by Farragut. Cadet Charles Brewer took 3rd place against much older and more experienced sailers for a creditable showing.

"We received many compliments and praise for the team by the Toms River people," Coach Dezendorf explained, "and our Cadets conducted themselves as gentlemen at all times and were a real credit to the Academy."

Team members are selected from the Sailing Club, and they all studied sailing theory during the winter months. The team of the top 8 Cadets were all well versed in racing rules and tactics, as well as theory, and all received their Varsity F letters. There was a total of 25 members in the Sailing Club. "All were taught knot-tying, marlinspike and other important knots and hitches necessary for sailing, and the 25' skiff, Winning Wind, was used as a Committee and Chase boat throughout the two seasons. Team members had the opportunity to learn to handle this type of power boat during their training sessions.

Mr. Dezendorf expressed the hope that the sailing club will attract more Cadets in the years ahead. He said he would introduce a new program for the non-sailing season to stimulate this interest. Also, he is going to attempt to find secondary schools with sailing teams against which Farragut sailors will race during the 1982-83 year.

While originally funded by the Alumni Association, the Parents' Association this year adopted the program as one of its objectives and turned over approximately $2500 for this purpose. Over the years all Cadets have been required to take basic training in sailing, but it has only been in the last four years that a strong effort has been made to develop competitive sailing against outside sources. One of the problems until now has been the lack of a specific sailing class fleet for competition purposes. Since the program started, the fleet has gone from Penguins to Lasers

Colors Won By 2nd Co.

The Second Company, under the command of Cadet LT Ernesto Dutriz, won the "Colors" for its efforts during the 1981-82 school year.

The "Roaring Second" took a commanding lead with a total of 1855 points, compared with 1519 for the Third Company and 1184 for the Band Company.

Under a new organizational plan for the Corps, competition was held among the 2nd, 3rd and Band Companies only, since the First Company was comprised of Lower School Cadets only. The Company was divided into Blue and Silver platoons and competed between each other. The Blue platoon took top honors with total points of 678 to 577.

"Farragut Alumni have played a large part in helping to shape this world. They have held major leadership roles in the military, in industry, in medicine and so many other countless areas in which their education at Farragut has helped to make them stand out above the crowd. I know that my classmates and I will try our hardest to continue this tradition of great leaders and men. I know that I will personally strive to maintain the highest goals possible, to carry on the proud tradition that is Farragut, to make this world a better place in which to live. I can clearly see that as long as there are Farragut graduates living on earth, this earth will be worth living on."

Captain Robert W. Matthies, Jr., Headmaster has announced the formation of a special 50th Anniversary Committee to observe the Academy's Golden Anniversary year. Captain Frederick N. Klein, USN, Ret., a staff member since 1965, has been appointed Chairman of the Committee and will work closely with the Headmaster during the formation and observance period. Captain W. Kable Russell, Chairman of the Academy's Board of Trustees and sole active Staff member of the original staff in 1933, will serve as Honorary Chairman. Others being asked to serve include: STAFF — J. Angell, E. Cole '56, A. D'Elia, C. Harrington, F. Jewett, D. Lynch, W. Masciangelo '37 and L. Speck. ALUMNI — B. Cameron '56, N. Carpenter '45, T. Coffey '73, P. Cooke '45, K. Crowe '76, A. Fernicola '37, D. Schreiber '46, G. Theobald '39, F. Wendt '42 and T. Wood '38.

PARENTS — A. Fields. F. Fischer, S. Gangemi, S. Haydu, M. Last, J. Reynolds, S. Sardano, M. Thomas, T. Thomas and D. Yoho. Others — F. Berry, G. Daniel, R. Dodge, and N. Reinhard.

Captain Matthies said he will welcome any other members of the Farragut Family who would like to serve on the Committee if they will contact him in the near future.

While the Academy's actual birthday will not be until September of 1983, it is possible that the observance year could begin with the commencement of June 1983 and continue through until graduation of 1984 when the Class of 1934 will be holding its 50th graduation year observance. A number of activities have been suggested for this important upcoming year, and the Alumni Association has already gone on record to hold a gala ball during the fall of '83 as its project of participation.

HITS AND BITS

Footballers of the Joe Stanczyk coaching era will be interested to learn that he and his wife, Lois, are now living at Tall Oaks, Buckeye, LA 71321. Joe retired from his coaching position at the U of P and then went south to get away from it all. He says it is quite different country, far out in the country, and 16 miles to the nearest shopping center. Joe was back for the '81 Homecoming and saw a number of his former players.

Rich Schneider continues to pile up his cooking awards, being selected one of the first five chefs in this country to be named master chef. The honor was bestowed upon him at the Culinary Institute of America, Hyde Park, in March of this year. Rich was a member of the official U.S. Culinary Team that won first prize in the 1980 Culinary Olympics held at Frankfurt, West Germany. He and his brother run the Swan Lake Inn, Clementon, N.J. With his reputation, you know the food is good.

Congratulations to Cadets Jim McGee, Dave Hardee, Bob Cericola, Andy Keczkemethy, Adam Phipps, Phil Pall, Luis Lopez, Bill Connell and Anton Largiader for representing Farragut at the March community blood drive in Ocean Gate. Miss S. Barnett, R.N., in charge of the Sick Bay, and Mr. Joseph Viola, member of the faculty, participated also.

The Parents' Association's Activities Committee kept Cadets hopping in a number of ways this past year. Awards were given to winners in the Spring Field Day, and checks were presented to the winners of the sailboat race, an electronics contest, and a pool tournament. The Committee was chaired by Mrs. Marne Thomas, Toms River.

Headmaster Bob Matthies was quite pleased to announce that the Academy had received a favorable report from the N.J. Dept. of Education's visiting team when it spent a full day at the Academy on March 23. After the inspection was over the team witnessed a ceremonial parade in its honor.

Bill Masciangelo, Alumni Secretary, wishes he could accept all of the Change of Command invitations that he receives from Alumni members. He received invitations from Admiral S. Robert Foley '46, to the Command of the U.S. Pacific Fleet, Pearl Harbor, on May 28; from Commander Thomas V. Chiomento '61, C.O., Regional Accounting and Disbursing Center, Jacksonville, Fla., on June 3; and from Commander Steven C. Myers '64, C.O., of the U.S. Naval Security Group Activity, Republic of Panama, on July 26. He also received one from Captain Peveril Blundell '48 when he took command of U.S. Naval Weapons Station, Concord, Calif., on June 12, 1981. "I'd love to attend each and every one of them, but distance and time prevents me from doing so," Masciangelo said.

For the past several years we have received considerable favorable publicity via Lorenzo Lamas, rising star of television and movies, for which we are most grateful. The son of Fernando Lamas and Arlene Dahl, he spent four years at Farragut before graduating with the Class of 1975. While a Cadet he was a member of the Staff with the rank of LTJG, and he participated as a varsity wrestler. Also, he belonged to the Swimming Club, Drama Club, Glee Club, Hop Committee, and Drill Team. In addition he was Publicity Manager of the Trident and President of his Class. His Trident quotation was, "Wax down your surfboards, which way to the beach? He has been seen in, "The Love Boat", "Switch", "Sword of Justice", "California Fever", "Secrets of Midland Heights", "Grease", "Tilt", "Take Down", and, most recently, as a regular on TV series, "Falcon Crest". Keep up the good work, Lorenzo.

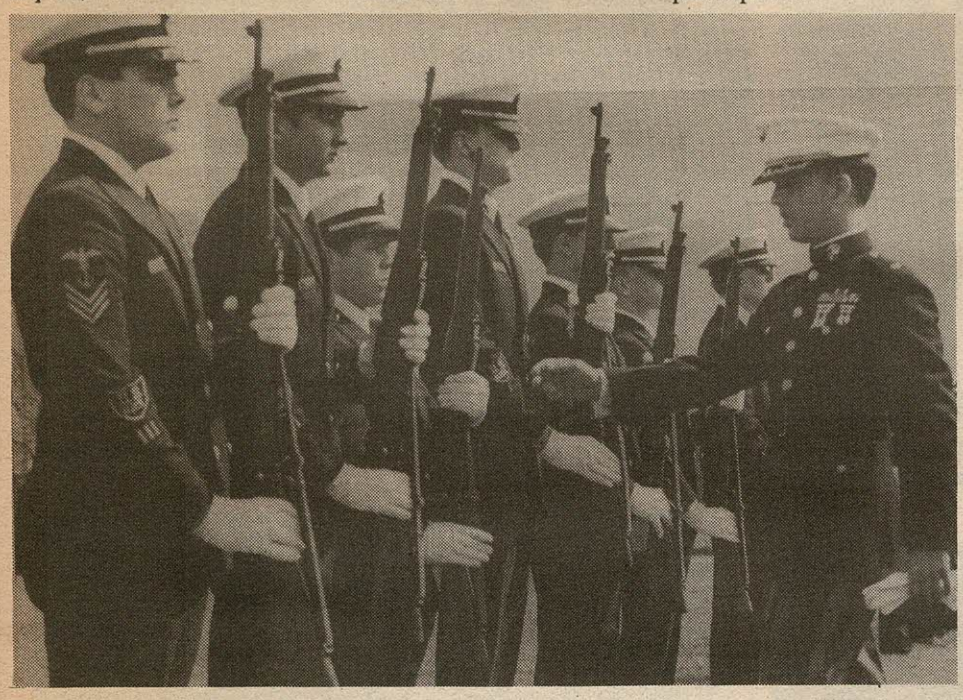
Hats off to Bob Henry '70 for his fine article — "Reaching for the Stars" — in the April Hands Magazine. The feature was the result of an interview Bob had with Alan Shepard '41 during the 1981 Homecoming event, and it includes seven of his drawings. Bob is a staff member of the Print Media Division of the Navy Internal Relations Activity, working in the Alexandria, VA., area.



LTC Wm. R. Masciangelo, Jr., USMC '62, checks Cadets in the May 2 Alumni Manual-of-Arms Contest. Cadet Edward Chick (extreme left) won the Contest after eliminating more than 30 other entrants. Masciangelo served as one of the three judges supervising the Cadets attempting to win the title of Best Drilled Cadet.

When the 1982 Trident was published in June, three members of the Fifth Grade class had their photographs omitted due to an oversight by the Staff. They are Cadets Christopher Acosta, Alfred Nicolosi and Theodore Ring.

Bridge Named For Ruzila '59

A bridge in Paramus, N.J., located on Howland Avenue adjacent to the entrance of Van Saun park, was named the Watters-Ruzila Memorial Bridge on June 13. Both names represent Americans killed in the Viet Nam War, and Ruzila was an alumnus of Farragut, Class of 1959.

Pete was one of the very first graduates to be killed in that particular war, and one of the earliest from the State of N.J. He was awarded posthumously the Purple Heart and the Military Medal and the Gallantry Cross, with Palm, by the government of the Republic of Viet Nam, as well as other civic and religious recognitions of a local and national character.

Pfc. Ruzila had been assigned to Viet Nam only 17 days before he was killed. He was driving a truck just outside of Saigon when the truck hit a mine. He had been assigned as a truck driver because he had experience in that line of work. After his days as a Cadet, Pete earned a degree at Bryant College with a BS degree in Business Administration in only three years.

Farragut Fund Sets All-Time Record With $39,616.15 Total

Class Trustee Bob Osborne '34 smiles as he accepts Certificate of Merit for his Class placing first in the 1980-81 Farragut Fund campaign. The Class finished with a record of 27.27%. Don Schreiber '46, 1st V.P., makes the presentation.

Gifts to the Alumni House combined with other contributions to this year's Farragut Fund campaign to set a new record of giving for the annual fundraising program conducted by the Alumni Association. A total of $39,616.15 from 315 donors exceeded the $30,000.00 goal by 32.05% for an all time high. The average gift per donor also set a record with its final figure of $125.76

Contributors had an opportunity to allocate 10% of their gifts for the Alumni House objective, and $877.25 was received from this procedure. Outright donations to the House itself amounted to $15,936.30 for a total of $16,713.30.

"This is the most wonderful experience we have seen demonstrated by our Alumni in its 44 year history." Alumni Secretary Wm. Masciangelo explained. "We launched our drive for funds to renovate the former Library building into this new complex early in '81," he explained, "and when we failed to reach our goal for the House during that special campaign, we included it with our 1981-82 Farragut Fund campaign and were able to add the additional $16,000 to it. This, in addition to continuing with our regular programs of Student Aid Fund, Headmaster's Fund, Marine Museum Fund, and the Competitive Sailing Team."

Masciangelo continued by saying that Farragut Alumni appreciate the value and worth of good objectives, and their generosity is proof of the interest they have in their Alma Mater.

The Class of 1936 took top honors among all classes for participation, registering 20.45% of its members as participants. The 1934 Class, a perennial winner each year, finished second with a 19.05% record. The Class of 1945 took top honors with the largest number of donors, when 16 members posted gifts, and the largest amount given by a Class of $1955.00. The Class of 1942 had the highest Average gift of $177.14.

In the special gift categories, 66 donors gave $8,550.00 to the Farragut Associates for an average of $129.54; 3 gave $1,000.00 to the Farragut Sponsors for an average of $333.33; 6 gave $3,000.00 to the Headmaster's Council for an average of $500; and 8 gave $19,454 for an average of $2431.85 as Farragut Fellows.

A significant factor in the success of this year's Fund is the $22,294.15 total given by Past and Present Parents, Friends and Corporations with matching gift programs. This included large individual gifts of $2,000.00, $6,500.00, $1,000.00, $5,000.00, $1,000.00, $1,000.00, and $2,000.00. Of this $16,500.00 total, $5,000.00 went to Student Aid, while the balance of the $16,500.00 was earmarked for the Alumni House.

Assoc. Names "House" For Alumni Secretary

It was a gorgeous day in Pine Beach on Oct. 24, 1981, the date of last year's Homecoming Day. A large attendance of Alumni and their families and friends, the excitement of America's first astronaut, Alan Shepard '41, present for his 40th anniversary reunion, and the dedication of the Association's new Alumni House all added up to a memorable occasion for the Academy and the Association.

The annual meeting that is normally held at 11:30 a.m. was advanced to 11:00 a.m. to accommodate the dedication program, and more than 70% of the Past Presidents were on hand to witness the remarkable achievement that was about to take place 43 years after the Association was first founded in 1938.

In a surprise move earlier at the annual meeting, on a proposal by George F. Theobald '39 and strongly seconded by Philip Hurt '38, both past presidents, the Association voted almost unanimously to name the new building the Wm. R. Masciangelo Alumni House. Masciangelo registered the lone negative vote, stressing that the House was a tribute to all Alumni who have supported the Association over the years, and that while he appreciated the honor, he felt he could not have accomplished anything if it had not been for the individuals who have been generous, not only this year, but in all of the 43 years the organization has been in business.

Despite Masciangelo's protest, the Association, on a motion of acclamation to uphold its original motion to name the new House in the Alumni Secretary's name, overrode any protest that might have been registered and became fact with the unanimous approval of said motion. In the face of the action taken, there was little that could be done at that point.

Donald R. Schreiber '46, 1st Vice President and acting in the absence of President Wm. P. Garwood '49, who was recovering from recent surgery, welcomed all present at the dedication ceremony following the annual meeting. He next introduced the Past Presidents in attendance, including: William M. Howie '36 (1940-46), Charles R. Beyer '38 (1947-48), Clayton E. Matthews '36 (1948-49), Anthony R. Fernicola '37 (1949-50), William A. Taylor '36 (1950-51), George F. Theobald '39 (1952-54), Douglas E. MacDonald '36 (1954-56), William A. Beirne '41 (1958-60), Philip Hurt '38 (1960-62), Louis C. Goetting '43 (1966-68), John A. Gardella '41 (1973-76), and H. Kneeland Whiting '50 (1976-79). He thanked them for coming to this important program and for all that was accomplished during their terms of office.

Captain Robert W. Matthies '67, Headmaster, next told of the meaning of the Alumni House to the Academy and praised the Association for all that it has done to help Farragut over the years.

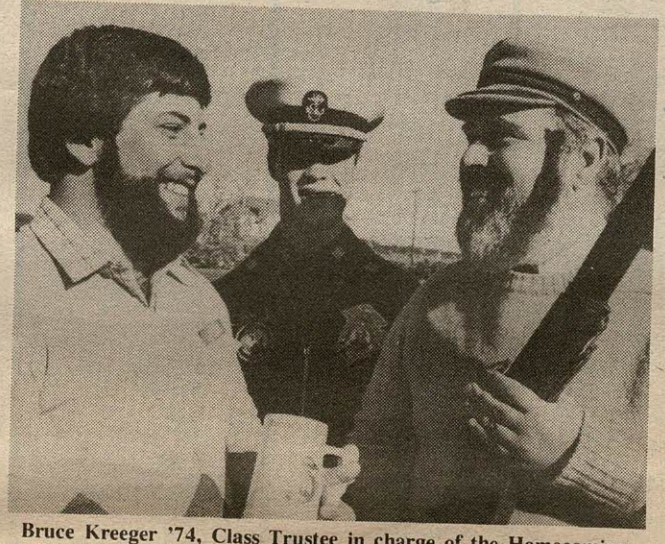
Captain W. Kable Russell, President of the Academy Board of Trustees, cut the ribbon and presented the official key to Bill Masciangelo '37, Alumni Secretary, citing him for all of the many accomplishments that have been made since the Association was first organized.

Masciangelo accepted the key from Captain Russell and then said, "saying thank you can be said in many ways. I have tried to do this for the past 43 years and have found there is only one real way: A simple thank you for any and all gifts received or services rendered. So, I want to say Thank you for being here today; Thank you for being who and what you are; Thank you for all the volunteers who have served Farragut; Thank you for all of your support; Thank you to all Past Presidents whom I have been priviledged to serve; Thank you to all our past Headmasters; Thank you to Bob Matthies '67, who understands better than anyone what the term alumnus means, and what it means to me to have a Headmaster who is an alumnus; Thank you to Captain Russell, who has given untold support to me and to the Association since it was founded, and for all that he has done for Farragut in his own quiet and unobstrusive way; Thank you for the privilege of serving you as Alumni Secretary; Thank you to my dear wife, Julie, who has put up with me and my alumni all of these years; and most of all, I simply want to say Thank you to everyone who is, in any way, a part of Farragut."

CDR Robert W. Lankford, Academy Chaplain, closed the dedication with a dedication prayer.

Guests had an opportunity to visit the Wm. R. Masciangelo '37 Alumni House before and after the dedication program.

Bill Masciangelo '37, Alumni Secretary, thanks alumni and guests present for the dedication of the new Alumni House named in his honor. The event took place Oct. 24, 1981, and followed a ribbon cutting ceremony at the entrance to the former Library building.



Bruce Kreeger '74, Class Trustee in charge of the Homecoming Manual-of-Arms contest last October, presents AFA mug to winner Burns Cameron '56. It was the second consecutive year the contest was won by Cameron. The contest is held at the football game halftime.

SUPPORT THE ANNUAL FARRAGUT FUND

Captains Robert Matthies '67, Headmaster, and W. Kable Russell, Board President, appear to be very happy as key to the new Alumni House is handed to Alumni Secretary Bill Masciangelo '37 following ribbon cutting marking the dedication of the facility. The event took place at the 1981 Homecoming Day, Oct. 24.

BSA Honors W. Taylor '36

William A. Taylor '36, a former president of the Alumni Association, was presented with Boy Scouting's highest award, the Silver Beaver Award and certificate, a little over a year ago. There were 425 persons at the presentation banquet, and the certificate was signed by President Reagan, Honorary President of the BSA.

In making the presentation it was mentioned that Bill is a Past President of the A.F.A. Alumini Association, as well as a Director of the Academy's Marine Museum Board.

Bill has retired from the Hale Pump Co., Conshohocken, Pa., and writes that he and his wife, Helen, are thoroughly enjoying themselves. He is a part time associate of the Kerosun Corp., serving as Regional Service Manager and covering Penn., Delaware, and Maryland. The Taylors get to travel together, which makes it nice, according to what Bill says. He was also elected to his fifth term as president of his local fire company.

F.P. Wendt '42 Bates Trustee

Frank P. Wendt '42 has been elected a Trustee of Bates College, Lewiston, Maine. He serves on the Board of Overseers of Bates, the first coeducational college in New England. Frank is Chairman of the Board of John Nuveen & Co., Inc., the largest national firm of investment bankers specializing in municipal bonds.

For many years one of the most active members of the Academy's Alumini Association, he has served as President and Farragut Fund Chairman, he has been a commencement speaker, and he was the very first recipient of the Distinguished Alumnus Award. In addition, he has been a very generous supporter of the Alumni Association and the Academy.

Alumnus Makes Surgical Suits

Those antiseptic green suits worn by surgical teams in operating rooms found favor as carefree leisure wear in the fall of 1980, and Gerald M. Benstock '47 president of Superior Surgical Mfg. Co., became the beneficiary of the sudden popularity.

Based in Seminole, Fla., Benstock's firm turned out as many as 1600 dozen sets a week at its three Arkansas plants to meet the demand. Although the originals came in pale green and blue, requests for white suits that could be dyed began to pile up. "They're going for plum and red and fuchsia and pink," Jerry explained of this new development from an old line that he had been producing almost exclusively for hospitals.

Superior Surgical moved to Florida several years ago after being based at Huntington, L.I., for many years.

He was a member of Co. 3.

CARL K. JAUSLY '38 - Died in early June of this year. Another great football player with the 1936 and 1937 teams, Carl's 225 lb. frame put him in a class by himself as far as fullbacks go. Later in life, he lost both legs and an eye from a long case of diabetes, but even with these handicaps he maintained a cheerful and optimistic attitude that was to be admired. IS FARRAGUT IN YOUR WILL?

As Farragut begins its 50th year, we hope that you will consider ways to assure its continued well-being for the future. One important way is to remember the School in your will. To sustain its place among independent schools of the first rank, substantial endowment funds will be needed. With your support, Farragut will continue to educate young men for roles of leadership and responsibility in our complex society, plus prepare them adequately for the next higher form of education they may choose. We ask you to plan now so that through your will a life-long interest in Farragut can be perpetuated by the establishment of a fund to endow the Student Aid Fund, perhaps a teaching chair, or a special program.

ALUMNI in Review

with Bill Masciangelo '37

1934

A very pleasant relationship has developed between DICK CLOONAN and the writer ever since he (Dick) retired from his job with the Detroit Free Press and moved to Escondido, Calif. Dick has kept a barrage of interesting letters flowing to Pine Beach, and he has become a member of the Academy's National Admissions Committee, eager to serve and always ready to send info of interest to Farragut. Keep it up, Dick. We need more men like you.

Even though MINER MC GEORGE has been retired for some time, he writes that he is busy playing with two bands, two brass groups, a Dixie combo, plus plays and sings with his church group.

Class Trustee BOB OSBORNE was married to Jennie E. Loveman on July 25, 1981, in Beachwood, N.J. Bob has been a widower for a number of years and, since we know Jennie personally, we feel that he is fortunate to be able to call her his wife. Congratulations to two fine individuals.

A nice letter from PHIL MACKAY about a year ago, told us that he always considered himself fortunate to have spent the first two years of the Academy's existence as a member of the Cadet Corps. He and Bob Osborne were good friends and they had the happy experience of turning over in one of the Catboats early in the Spring of '34. He says that he sees MC MAKIN fairly often, who is semi-retired and living in Monmouth Beach, N.J. (Phil died on April 12, 1982.)

1936

Retired from the Trenton Board of Education, where he taught music, CARL ERIKSON lives in Lawrenceville, N.J.

HARRY HARVEY looked handsome as ever when he attended Homecoming last fall. He and Nancy have five grandchildren ranging from 11 to 1 via 3 children.

After leaving AFA, BOB HAWLEY spent 3½ years in Springfield, Vt., then on to the 2017th Ord. Maint. Co. with the Air Force, serving 2 years in the Pacific. After pursuing Mech. Eng. at the U. of VT., he put in more than 20 years with G. E. before retiring in 1971. He is married, with 2 boys and 1 girl, all of whom are married and who produced 3 grandchildren. He is wintering in Port Orange, Fla.

BILL TAYLOR says that retirement is just great. He was elected to his 4th term as President of his local fire company last summer. (See other story in this edition.)

After approximately 43 years, DON CLARK, with wife, Zipper, visited the Academy on Oct. 24, 1980, in what turned out to be one of the worst rainstorms in Pine Beach history. Later, in April of '81, we had the pleasure of attending a reunion of Farrragut alumni living in the Phoenix, Arix., area, where we were treated royally by our gracious hosts. Don has hardly changed over the years, except for a snowcrop of white hair adorning his head.

Bud Ifill '37

One of the nicest letters we have ever received was from Joan, wife of BUD IFILL, who told us how happy they are living in Sarasota, Fla. Bud took an early retirement and is thoroughly enjoying his new life. GUS JOHNSON '36 lives in the area, also, and they fully intended to see him, according to the letter written last July.

BILL STETSON wrote in Feb. that he has been married for 38 years, has 3 married children scattered from Maine to New Mexico, 2 grandchildren and 3 grand-dogs. Bill plans to retire from Civil Service this Christmas and then hopes to get back to AFA for a visit. We hope so.

The last time we heard from BOB STUART was in connection with the 1980 Homecoming, when he wrote to say he couldn't attend. At the time he was scheduling an exam for his Computer Science students. His son is a Navy flyer.

We experienced a most pleasant surprise when ERIC "TINY" KNUDSON paid his first visit since graduation last July. And, he looks very much the same as he did when he was playing ball for Joe Stanczyk. He was Mayor of the city of Willoughby, Ohio, at the time of his visit.

In Feb. of '81, KEN TEBO told us that his youngest son, Brad, was getting his PhD. in Oceanology at Scripps Institute. His other two children are in San Francisco. Ken continues to live in Falls Church, Va.

BILL APPLEGATE retired from his practice of dentistry at the end of March, 1981. He was here for Homecoming last fall and looked great. His wife, Connie, insists that he is retarded, not retired, according to Bill.

Last June BEN HAGUE was an employment counselor for the Rhode Island Job Service. He admits that he misses active duty service with the Army, however, after retiring from that branch.

A note from ARTHUR VINCENT JACKSON'S dad last June told us that Vince had retired from the service and was now living in Port Royal, Island of Roatan, off the north coast of Honduras. He and Carol designed and built their own home, where there is the best snorkeling and scuba diving on the second best reef in the world. His address is: Oak Ridge Roatan, Islas de la Bahia, Honduras, C.A.

OWEN KEELER is V.P. (Central Area) for the U.S.N.A. Alumni Assoc.

BAILEY NORTON retired in '81 after 31 years with Acme Chain Div. of Incom Intl., Inc. As president, he was responsible for establishing a plant in Singapore and made many visits to the Far East in recent years. He is now living in Edgartown, Mass.

We wonder how that quartet of bridge players, DICK DOYLE, BOB BERRY, AL HINE and JIM MALLEY would do in competition these days? They played a lot of bridge together while Cadets and were, to some extent, far ahead of their time.

The late ART GILLIGAN organized and was commissioner of the General Dynamics Astronomy Club more than 20 years ago, and the Club even built a 19-inch telescope. Now, there is an annual award given to the member who has contributed the most to the group, and the name of the award is the Arthur E. Gilligan Award. His widow, Mary, continues to keep in touch and supports the Farragut Fund annually in Art's memory.

A fairly recent note from BOB MAC EWEN told us that he is retired, has 3 children, lives in Walnutport, Pa., majored in Biology and Chemistry at Duke, George Washington and Drew, and served in the regular Navy for 7 years. Bob was convoying British troops to Singapore at the time of Pearl Harbor and he met ELMER CROCK '37 in Cape Town. El was serving aboard the Joseph T. Dickman at the time.

The Class has a new member in CASSIUS BARTLETT BARNES. Cassius attended AFA for three years, but left before graduating with '40. However, since the Association's constitution permits any Cadet attending for at least one school year, who leaves in good standing, to become a member, that member is listed with the Class with which he would have graduated. He was a Cadet from 1934 through 1937. He is Special Projects and Inventory Head, Allied Devices, Inc., Baldwin, N.Y. He is a Citadel grad, is married, has 2 children, and served in the Air Force for three years.

We had a pleasant visit by WALT KRICHLING in January when he brought a prospective Cadet for interview and mid-year entrance. Happily, the young man made it and is now a member of the Cadet Corps. Walt is Physical Ed. Dept. Chairman in Trenton, N.J., is married, has 4 children, and pursues surf fishing and gardening as hobbies. He served as an officer in the A.F. during WW II, and is a grad. of U. of Penn, where he starred in football. It was good to see you, Walt, and we appreciate the young man you sent to us.

He has had considerable problems with his health over the years, so a word or two from his friends, would be of great help. He particularly mentioned JACK LINDSAY and JOHN HANSEN. He can be reached by writing to: LT. J.E. HAYS, USN, Ret., WD, A3, Rm. 3090, U.S. V.A. Center, Biloxi, MS 39531. A friendly word will go a long way toward helping this old buddy.
